

National B and PW Week To Be Observed Locally

National Business and Professional Women's Week, September 23-29 will be observed by the Waynesville Club by honoring a "Woman of the Year," selected from nominations submitted by various women's organizations of Waynesville. The "Woman of the Year" will be guest of honor at a dinner meeting to be held Tuesday evening, September 25, at 7 o'clock at The Lodge.

As a further observance of the week, members will attend the morning service at the First Baptist Church in a body Sunday morning, September 23.

The Haywood County Ministerial Association is cooperating with the plans by turning over to the club the Morning Devotions radio program heard over WHCC Radio Station each weekday morning at 8 o'clock. The schedule of dates and subjects is as follows: Monday, September 24, "Love," by Mrs. J. T. Russell; Tuesday, September 25, "Christian Attitudes Toward Work," Mrs. Ruth Craig; Wednesday, September 26, "Prayer," Mrs. Joe Limer; Thursday, September 27, "The Joy of Walking and Working With The Master," Mrs. Rebekah Murray; Friday, September 28, "A La High For New Levels of Leadership," Mrs. M. L. Sadler; Saturday, September 29, "Faith," Mrs. Claude Rogers.

Business and Professional Women's Day will be observed on Wednesday, September 26, when club members take over the operation of Radio Station WHCC for two periods, 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. During these periods regular programs will be taken over by Business and Professional Women and only women will be on the air.

On Wednesday and Saturday of the week local members will meet and lunch together at a special "fellowship table" reserved at the Towne House.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lynwood P. McElroy, the following committee members are working to carry out the plans for the week: Mrs. G. C. Ferguson, Mrs. John Metzger, Miss Mary Cornwell, Mrs. Kurt Gans, Mrs. J. T. Russell, Mrs. P. H. Gentry, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. Kenneth D. Fry, Mrs. Charles F. Fowler, Miss Margaret Boyd, Mrs. M. L. Sadler, Mrs. Edith Alley Emson, Miss Peggy McCracken, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, and Mrs. Fay Toy.

Mrs. Ben Phillips is president of the club.

Mrs. C. B. Witt has returned to her home in Canton after a trip to Ithaca, N. Y., where she visited Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dickerson. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Dickerson, and Mr. Dickerson, of Daytona Beach, Fla.

Women's Division Of Farm Bureau To Meet Saturday

Haywood County farm women are invited to attend a meeting of the Women's Division of the Haywood County Farm Bureau on Saturday, September 22, at 10:30 a.m. in the Courthouse.

Mrs. Irby Walker of Greensboro, administration director of Farm Bureau Women, will address the group.

The Women's Division was recently organized in the county with Mrs. D. J. Boyd as temporary chairman. At Saturday's meeting a permanent chairman will be elected as well as other officers and a board of directors.

The purpose of the newly organized group is to assist in an active, organized way in carrying forward such phases of the American Farm Bureau Federation as enlist the creative interest of women, namely: to accent the fundamental importance of organized efforts; to bring about better educational, social, and spiritual opportunities for rural people; to strengthen and support the executive organization; and to give rural women the means of expression and strength that come from unity in organized efforts dedicated to the development of a more abundant country life.

Mrs. Murphy Is Club Hostess

The Merry Homemakers Home Demonstration Club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Don Murphy. Mrs. Paul Clark, Jr. presided.

During the business session Mrs. Eula Clark, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, reported a profit of $150.00 from the Labor Day food concession.

Plans were discussed for the completion of the Achievement Day exhibits.

Mrs. Jack Rice and Mrs. Neal Hipps were named as project leaders to attend the House Furnishing school held here Wednesday. Project reports were given on Home Gardens by Mrs. Arthur Wall, and Home Beautification by Mrs. Tommy Robertson.

The demonstration on "Family Business Affairs" was given by Miss Mary Cornwell.

Mrs. Melvin Henline and Mrs. Olen V. Hyde were welcomed as new members.

Miss Nancy Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow of Route 3, has entered Mars Hill college as a freshman.

BACK IN SCHOOL AGAIN are clerks of Waynesville area retail stores, attending salesmanship classes all this week under sponsorship of the Merchants Association and the State Distributive Education Department. Some 87 sales clerks from 21 business firms have been attending the sessions, held in the basement of the First Methodist Church, with F. M. Sinclair, training specialist for the State Distributive Education Service as instructor. Evening classes are also being held for store executives.
