

B And PW Club Is Celebrating National Week

The Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club is engaging in a week of special activities in celebration of National Business and Professional Week, September 23-29.

Members of the club are conducting the Morning Devotions radio program over WHCC each day at 8 o'clock. A dinner Tuesday night at The Lodge marked B and PW Day and the club honored Mrs. Lawrence E. Green as The Woman of The Year.

The club was organized only eight years ago on July 14, 1948 with 29 charter members, and since that time has achieved an outstanding record of community service. Its 48 members are representative of numerous occupations and professions and devote considerable time to church, school, and community projects at the same time carrying on home and family responsibilities.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey was first president of the club, serving until May, 1950. Following her as president were Mrs. Doyle D. Alley, Mrs. J. Rufus McCracken, Miss Margaret Johnston, Miss Mary Cornwell and Mrs. J. Howard Bryson, in order named.

Mrs. Ben Phillips is now head of the club and her officers include Mrs. John T. Davis, vice president; Mrs. Jack Edwards, recording secretary; Mrs. Bill Swift, treasurer; and Mrs. M. G. Stamey, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Lynwood P. McElroy is serving as general chairman for the special events of the week and committee members include Mrs. G. C. Ferguson, Mrs. John Metzger, Miss Mary Cornwell, Mrs. Kurt Gans, Mrs. J. T. Russell, Mrs. P. H. Gentry, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. Kenneth D. Fry, Mrs. Charles F. Fowler, Miss Margaret Boyd, Mrs. M. L. Sadler, Mrs. Empson, Miss Peggy McCracken, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, and Mrs. Fay Toy.

Dinner at The Lodge Tuesday night, in addition to honoring The Woman of the Year, also marked the National Business and Professional Hyatt.

MRS. EARL B. WHITE of Winter Haven, Fla. will be an instructor for the Garden School Course to be held in Canton, October 1-3.

Canton Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Pate

The Canton Garden Club met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. J. Frank Pate, on Poplar Street. Mrs. Henry Seaman was associate hostess.

During the business session Mrs. Paul Hyatt gave a report of the beautification committee, and Mrs. James B. Hurley reported on the recent district meeting held in Asheville. Mrs. Hurley also told of the activities of the Dogwood Garden Club, a junior club sponsored by the group.

Mrs. A. W. Bottoms discussed plans for the N. C. State Garden School, course 5 to be held October 1, 2 and 3 in the Central Methodist Church in Canton.

The club went on record as favoring Christmas lighting, the Holiday House tour, a spring flower show, and a fall vegetable show, all proposed plans of the Canton Council of Garden Clubs.

Mrs. Willis Kirkpatrick presented a program on "Fragrance in the Garden". She reviewed the book written on the same subject by Norma Taylor.

Line mass arrangements suitable for a hallway were judged, and Mrs. Bottoms won the blue ribbon. Mrs. Charles Branson won the red ribbon, and Mrs. William B. Williamson, Jr. was awarded the yellow ribbon.

Following the meeting luncheon was served by the hostesses.

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Ida Smiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Smiley, to Charles Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Burris, also of Waynesville, has been announced by the bride's parents. The ceremony took place in Greenville, S. C. on September 15. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burris are 1956 graduates of Waynesville Township High School. Mr. Burris is now engaged in trucking. The couple are making their home on Allens Creek.

CAR Will Hold First Meeting Wednesday

The Joseph Howell Society, Children of the American Revolution, will hold its first fall meeting Wednesday, October 3, at 3:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Sr., a CAR grandmother.

The following new officers will assume their duties: Carey Howell, president; Susan Moody, vice president; Marietta Campbell, secretary; Betty Owen, treasurer; Harden Howell, registrar; Rebecca McElroy, historian; Mary Barber, Chaplain; and Betty Ruth Atkins, program chairman.

The members will report on interesting experiences during their summer vacations and projects based on historical events will be adopted.

Mrs. R. C. Lane of Lake Junaluska, senior president of the Society, will direct the meeting.

Clyde PTA Holds Year's First Meet

"Education, Our Investment in the Future" is the theme adopted by the Clyde PTA for its program for the current school year.

Plans for the year were made at a meeting of the PTA Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Carl Gillis presided and announced her committees for the year. Mrs. Howard Shook conducted the devotions.

Perry Plemmons, principal of the school, introduced the following new teachers: Miss Denton, Miss Betty Morrow, and Mrs. Donnahoe.

A social hour was held following the meeting.

Officers of the PTA are Mrs. Gillis, president; Mrs. J. B. Soesbee, vice president; and Mrs. Jerry Leatherwood, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon R. Brown and their son, Gordon, Jr., have returned to their home in Scott, Ark., after visiting Mr. Brown's aunt, Dr. L. B. Funke.

Harold Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Winchester, is a member of the junior class at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Women's Day.

The program, presented jointly by the membership, public affairs, and public relations committee, included an impressive candle ceremony conducted by Mrs. McElroy and Mrs. Gentry. Lighted candles in different colors signifying different stations in the club were presented to charter members, past presidents, and present officers.

Mrs. Frank Jenkins of Brevard is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. National Business and Professional Hyatt.

Garden School Course Is Set For Next Week

Final plans have been completed for the North Carolina State Garden School, course 5, to be held October 1, 2 and 3 in the Central Methodist Church in Canton.

The school is co-sponsored by the Garden Clubs of N. C., Inc. and the Extension Division of N. C. State College. Mrs. A. W. Bottoms of the local council is serving as general chairman. Mrs. Bradley Morrah, president of the National Council of Garden Clubs, will attend the school.

Instructors will be Mrs. John R. Salois of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Earl B. White of Winter Haven, Fla. Both are nationally accredited flower show judges, and they have conducted schools, workshops, and demonstrations in many states.

The school is under the auspices of the Canton Council of Garden Clubs. Mrs. Paul Hyatt is president of the council, and clubs included are: The Canton Garden Club, Town and Country, Rhodendron, and the Friendly.

Registration will be held Monday from 9 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. The address of welcome will be given by Mrs. Hyatt, and Miss Louise Ballard, 2nd vice president of the Garden Club of N. C., will respond.

On Monday Mrs. Salois will lecture on "Landscape Design," "Methods of Gathering, Preserving, and Transporting," and "Standards of Judging".

Tuesday Mrs. White will speak on "Arrangements with a Purpose" and "Color in Flower Arranging". She will conduct a demonstration on arranging and judging.

Examinations for those desiring national council credit will be given Wednesday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Luncheon will be served in the church dining room at $1.00 per plate.

Donald R. Leatherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill R. Leatherwood, has returned to the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy where he is a member of the junior class.
