

Canton High Campus Cuffnotes

By JIMMY HELGAR

The highlight of the past school week was the overwhelming defeat Canton gave Waynesville last Friday night. This was the worst defeat Waynesville has suffered in the past 25 years. Canton took their fourth straight victory at a score of 45 to 6. The Black Bears are really hustling this year with only 12 points scored against them in all four games.

The pep rally Thursday, the night before the big game, was a great success. Many Canton High students participated and showed that they were backing their team all the way.

In the assembly on Friday morning we saw a film of the team practicing; afterward the cheerleaders led us in the school cheers. The cheerleaders this year are very enthusiastic.

The first issue of "Bear Tracks," the school newspaper, came out on Thursday. The "Bear Tracks" staff issued a very good paper and the students were eager to get their copies. The paper announced Color Day for Friday and red and black were prevalent that day.

Clubs are becoming very active and more are being organized this year. A Classic Club is a new one where students will be studying classical music. The Christian Youth Organization seems to have a larger attendance than any other club. This club has a great outlook at CHS and seems to have a great bearing on the activities around school.

The Student Council, under the leadership of Charles Greene, has been holding its meetings and discussing problems of the school. The homeroom representatives have been elected and attend the meetings every other Monday. These representatives are going to form the Junior Red Cross Council.

The first school party, a sock hop, was held Saturday night in

Wrong Guess

PASCO, Wash. (AP) — Police figured the thief who broke his way into the First Lutheran Church spent about an hour breaking the lock on the door through which he made his entry.

The thief guessed wrong. The door he forced was the only one in the church that was locked. Incidentally, he apparently had a change of heart after he got in because nothing was missing.
