board is hereby authorized to purchase such real estate as may be necessary for the purposes set out, and to purchase and maintain the necessary equipment for such building.

Section 2. The board of county commissioners of Haywood county may annually levy a tax not in excess of three cents on each $100 valuation of real estate and personal property taxable in said county, the proceeds of which tax shall be used and expended under the direction and control of said commissioners, upon such terms and conditions as said commissioners shall prescribe for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a building suitable for the uses set out above.

Section 3. The governing body of Haywood county shall not levy any tax or appropriate or expend any pursuant to the provisions of this Act unless the same shall have been approved by a majority of those who shall vote at the election provided for in Section 4 of this act.

Section 4. The will of the qualified voters of Haywood county upon the question of levying of the tax provided for in this Act, shall be ascertained by a vote thereon at the fourth coming general election to be held in November 1956. A ballot shall be furnished each qualified voter of the county at said election which ballot shall be in the following form: "For the special levy to provide for the construction, maintenance, and operation of a building suitable for use for livestock, agricultural, home arts and industrial shows and exhibits, and other community, civic and educational purposes, and "Against, etc. etc."

Such affirmative and negative form may be printed upon separate ballots, or both thereof may be printed on one ballot containing squares opposite the affirmative and negative forms, in one of which squares the voter may make a cross (X) mark.

The General Assembly ratified the Act the 11th of May, 1955.

J. W. Robinson Dies At 89

Joseph William Robinson, 89, of Canton died Wednesday afternoon in an Asheville hospital. He had been in declining health for the past few years and suffered a stroke Monday night from which he did not rally.

The funeral service will be held Friday at 2:30 p.m. in Rockwood Methodist Church.

The Rev. L. B. George and the Rev. T. C. Hicks will officiate and burial will be in Clark's Chapel Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Harry Moore, Harley Wright, Sr., Troy Willis, Lush and Frank Cabe, and Walter Teague.

The body has been taken to the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. E. Moore, with whom he made his home. It will lie in state at the church 30 minutes preceding the service.

A native and life-long resident of the Thickety section, Mr. Robinson was a retired farmer and a member of the Rockwood Methodist Church. His wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Cabe Robinson, died in 1926.

Surviving are two sons, Charles Robinson of Enka and Paul Robinson of Clyde; two daughters, Mrs. N. V. Medford and Mrs. Moore, both of the Thickety section; ten grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild; also a half brother, Jim Teague of West Asheville.

Arrangements are under the direction of Wells Funeral Home, Canton.

About 13 per cent of U. S. spending units (families and single people) had incomes over $7,500 in 1955 compared to 6 per cent in 1950.

MAY WE pour you some pepper tea? This does not happen to be a new plastic tea pot, but one that grew in the garden of Mrs. Frank Medford, Crabtree—a pod like a tea pot.

Three Winners Of WNC Vacations To Enjoy Color

Three winners of free one-week vacations in Western North Carolina, in a program sponsored by Coigate-Palmitive-Peet Co., Western North Carolina Associated Communities and Western North Carolina Highlanders, will come to the mountains this month.

These three are among 15 winners already selected from the states of Michigan, Connecticut, Mississippi, Arkansas, North Carolina, and Tennessee.

Other winners named will come to Western North Carolina next year.

Achievement Day

Happy Homemakers, Mrs. Harold Smathers, president, fifth with 2,575 points.

The Lakeside Club was runner-up for the grand prize awarded for exhibits.

Blue ribbon winners for exhibits, in addition to Beaverdam and Lakeside, were Maggie, Waynesville Homemakers, Dellwood, Happy Homemakers of Canton, Canton, Junaluska, Merry Homemakers, West Canton, Cornwell Club of Saunook, Center Pigeon, Cecil Canton Homemakers, and McKimmon.

Red ribbons went to Francis Cove, Jonathan Creek, Fairview, White Oak, Ratcliffe Cove, Upper Crabtree, Bethel, Allen's Creek, Crabtree - Hyder Mountain - Iron Duff, Thickety, Clyde, Morning Star, Fines Creek, and South Clyde.

The Cornwell Club placed first in points for scrapbooks with a book compiled by Mrs. Boyd Evans. Beaverdam placed second and Lakeside, third. They were awarded cash prizes of $10, $5 and $2.

The Achievement Day program opened to the public Tuesday afternoon and remained open through last night. It was the sixth annual event of its kind held by Haywood County's twenty-eight home demonstration clubs and represented the climax of a year's work. Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, assisted in planning the program and the Achievement Day committee was composed of Mrs. George Frady, chairman, Mrs. Marshall Cooper, Mrs. Glenn Allen, Mrs. Jack P. McCracken, and Mrs. Rankin Ferguson.

The attendance was the largest in the 6-year history of Achievement Day.

DEATHS

THOMAS E. KING

Thomas Emory King, 64, of Canton, died yesterday at 1:30 p.m. in a doctor's office in Canton. He had suffered a heart attack.

He was a native of Baltimore, Md., and had lived in Canton for the past six months.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. M. K. Abbott of Baltimore; and two brothers, Jacob N. King of Baltimore and Elmer S. King of Raleigh.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. in the chapel of Wells Funeral Home in Canton. The Rev. Kenneth Crouse, pastor of Morning Star Methodist Church, will officiate and burial will be in Bon-A-Venture Cemetery.

Meatless Tuesday

TISHOMINGO, Okla. (AP)—A Tishomingo city ordinance passed in 1918—and still on the books—makes it illegal for citizens of this southern Oklahoma town to "serve, prepare or eat" any beef, mutton or pork on Tuesday of each week.
