HEAR, O ISRAEL ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
Scripture—Deuteronomy 6. By Alfred J. Buescher

On the plains of Moab, after the Red Sea river crossing, Moses warns his people to be true to their God who had brought them out of bondage to take possession of the Promised Land.

The Israelites were instructed to teach the Lord's laws to their children; to talk of them in their homes, when they walked, when they laid down to sleep and when they rose in the morning.

Moses also warned his people not to forget God when they prospered in the Promised Land. They must remember to worship the Lord their God only, and not bow down before heathen idols.

In time to come, if a son asked his father about these laws and statutes, he should be told the story of their flight from Egypt, by the Lord's help. MEMORY VERSE—Deut. 6:6-7a.

TOUCHDOWNS come at the end of long, sustained drives. Rarely is the goal line crossed with little effort and without the cooperation of every member of the team.

So it is with civic improvement. Our towns are made finer by combined and continuing effort. As in football, if any member of the team lets up anywhere in the drive, the final objective may not be reached.

Help your town reach its goal in the Finer Carolina contest by completing all projects by December 1.
