

The Younger Set

AT W.T.H.S.

NANCY NOLAND — Editors — PATSY CLARK

Last week was a very busy one at Waynesville High. The pictures for the annual were taken. I am sure everyone looked real pretty.

Also the superlatives were chosen: Most popular—Tom Garrett and Libby Smathers; sweetest—Carroll Rowland, Tommy Tucker and Mary Jane Hunter; best personality—Verlin Edwards and DeLores Hembree; most typical—Herman McGahr; and Patsy Clark; friendliest—Lucius Jones and Opal Haskett; cutest—Mike Byrd and Dody Prevost; prettiest and best looking—Bruce Clark and Mildred Smith; best all around—Carroll Hooper and Linda Rhinehardt; best dressed—Dan Sayer and Ruby Sue Ross; most talented—Bobby Hill and Betty Barber; most original—Eugene Brackett and Ann Ruff; best round dancers—Ralph Prevost and Gail Woodard; best square dancers—Kyle Edwards and Joan Bradley; most athletic—Tom Sparks and Arbadella Turner; most school spirit—Henry Jenkins, and Deana Jo Farmer; most likely to succeed—Gary Evans and Glenda Eavenson; most sincere—Jack Fel-nant and Ann Prevost; most studious—Gerhard Liebscher and Linda Boone; class flirt—Kenneth Hooper and Judy Harrell; wittiest—George Wilson and Brenda Brend-dall. I think the seniors have chosen a fine group.

We had some little tots visiting with us Wednesday. They were all real cute and seemed to like school just fine. The occasion was to choose the mascots. The winners were: Terry Wilde and Denese Moore.

The sales of annuals is coming along fine. If you want an annual, be sure to have your money in by the 26th of October. That includes those who have only paid some down. Bring the balance.

If you saw some sad-looking students Wednesday, the reason: we got report cards.

The Tally-Ho Club will sponsor the Harvest dance Thanksgiving night. That will be something for the college students as well as high school students to enjoy. A "Harvest" queen will be chosen, from candidates sponsored by each club. She will receive votes by the amount of money collected in her name. The money will be used to buy senior club pins.

The football boys played a good game Friday night. Keep up the good work and let's beat Brevard tonight. The game has been changed from Friday night so those who wish may see Hendersonville and Canton play.

Congratulations goes out to the band on their superior rating at Bristol Saturday. They played in division I which is the highest division. Their score was 97.9 per cent. There were approximately 50 bands there. They marched at the Tennessee High stadium for seven minutes. If you attended the ball game Friday night, you saw the program they presented.

Friday six members of the annual staff attended the Editors Roundtable at Western Carolina College. They attended two classes one on general pointers of a year book and one on photography. Both classes were very interesting and the group got some ideas that they hope to carry out in this year's annual. From the annual staff were: Gary Evans, editor, Glenda Eavenson, co-editor, Dody Prevost, assistant business manager, and Gail Woodard, David Hardwick, and Eugene Brackett. Jerry Buchanan, Gail Camlin and Agnes Roberson also attended the Editors Roundtable for the paper staff.

Wilburn Davis Heads UNC Group For Traffic Study

Wilburn Davis of Waynesville, a senior at the University of North Carolina, is chairman of a recently appointed student Traffic Advisory Commission. Clark Hinkley, also of Waynesville, is a member of the five-member commission. The commission was appointed last week by student body president, Bob Young, to look into the overall traffic situation in Chapel Hill. The group will function through the year and will approach

Silent Prayer

DALLAS, (AP)—Burglars stole three prayer books from the glove compartment of a woman's car while she was attending services.

The Board of Aldermen of Chapel Hill to present the results of their study.

The formation of a student Traffic Commission stems from a two-hour parking restriction put on the street in front of Big Fraternity Court at the University.

Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis. Hinkley is the son of Mrs. C. M. Hinkley and the late Dr. Hinkley.

Slight Mishap

BECKLEY, W. Va. (AP)—When Bill Robinson's car collided with a passenger train at nearby Mont-calm, he was hurled through his windshield, into a narrow opening between two bridges and down a 15-foot embankment into Crane Creek. He waded out with only a scratched finger.
