 "O come, let us worship".—Psalm 95:6.

No. It's just a rope . . . at the breaking point. But, frankly, it's a good illustration of how a man feels when his nerves are "worn to a frazzle."

The Church has never claimed that religion is a cure for frazzled nerves. But a man's Christian faith does this for him:

It shows him a Purpose in life more important than mere existence. It shows him a Power more effective than his own strength. It shows him a Future more rewarding than selfish gain. And it gives him courage more lasting than the sheer force of his human will.

With these spiritual resources, founded in the certainty that God understands and helps, a man never reaches "the breaking point." For when his human reserve is exhausted . . . he has only begun to tap the vast reservoir of Divine Strength.

THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE CAN SHOW YOU THE WAY!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Shepherd Psalm

GOD'S PROTECTING CARE REVEALED IN DAVID'S WORDS

Scripture—Psalm 23.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THIS LOVELIEST of all the psalms reveals to us how in his life King David experienced God's protecting care, His restoration of soul, guidance in living, and joy in companionship with his Maker.
 David had not led an easy existence. His life had been in danger when King Saul grew jealous of him and tried first to kill him, and then drove him into hiding because of his wrath. He had met temptation and had yielded, but, repentant, had gained the Lord's forgiveness. He had experienced great grief, as when his son Absalom rebelled against him and was slain.
 So David knew the heartaches of life as well as its joys, but through it all he could still rely on his God and trust in Him.
 "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." King David had been a shepherd boy and knew green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake."

Little children love beautiful green pastures and still water in which they can see their faces as well as reflections of the trees, bushes and plants growing on the shore. If very young they may not appreciate the beauties of such a scene as older persons, but they do feel it, and old and young experience the rest and restoration of soul they bring.

Then when illness strikes a member of our family, a dear friend, or ourselves, and we seem to be near to walking "through the valley of the shadow of death," we should "fear no evil," because God is near us in our grief or panic. He will take us safely across the door of death that may await us, or comfort us in our grief if a dear one goes.

MEMORY VERSE

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."—Psalm 23:6.

how the sheep must be cared for, led to pasture, and to streams for water; how the shepherd must stay with the flocks day and night and guard them in case of attacks by predatory beasts. The sheep must be taught to listen for his voice and to follow him. It is said to be true that sheep learn to recognize their master's voice and will follow no other voice that may call to them.

There are a number of passages in both the Old and the New Testament referring to God as our shepherd: "He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arms, and shall carry them in His bosom, and shall gently lead those which are with young."—Isaiah 40:11.

Jesus saw all humanity as sheep without a shepherd, and "was filled with compassion for them because they were distressed and scattered as sheep not having a shepherd."
 "He maketh me to lie down in

"Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over." David had experience of God's care when King Saul was seeking to slay him, and he was also anointed by Samuel when Saul was repudiated by God.

In olden times priests and kings were anointed, and in a Jewish home a host poured oil on a guest's head as a welcome.

Lastly, and most comforting of all, is the last verse: "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

I would recommend that the older young people who are greatly troubled by world conditions memorize this beautiful psalm and repeat it to themselves with faith if they are unable to sleep when they lie down to rest, or when they are tempted to do something that is wrong. I can testify that it gives comfort and strength.
