Brevard Students Present Program At MYF Meeting

The Rev. C. E. Roy, professor at Brevard College, and three college students met with the MYF of The Plains and Rockwood churches at Rockwood Sunday evening. The students conducted the worship service, and with Mr. Roy, presented the work at the college.
After the service at 5 p.m., a covered dish supper was served in the social hall.

Mrs. Gladys Burrell and Jake Burrell left Sunday for New Smyrna Beach, Fla., to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Ben F. Kennedy and Mr. Kennedy.

Mrs. George Eller has returned home after spending some time with her son, George Eller, Jr. at Aiken, S. C.

Mrs. Horace Donaldson has returned from Memorial Mission Hospital where she underwent surgery. She is reported to be improving at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crane near Clyde.

Revival services began at the Oak Grove Baptist Church Sunday, and will continue through next week. The Rev. Garrett Propest, pastor, is doing the preaching. Services are held each day at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Wesleyan Service Guild held a regular meeting at the home of Miss Melba Willis Thursday night. The program was under the direc-

The Canton Black Bears ran over the Hendersonville Bearcats last Friday night to the tune of 42-7. All the extra points were kicked by Charles Duke. The team really played a game that makes all of Canton proud. The Cantor High fans spurred their team on to victory by their continual cheering.

The Black Bears are in line for the state championship games now and CHS is looking for victory all the way.

Color Day was again proclaimed on Friday and all the students paraded in red and black.

The PTA held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday night and for the program CHS had open house for the parents. After visiting the rooms, the parents and teachers were served refreshments. On Friday the PTA sponsored a supper in order to raise funds for its projects.

The "Bear Tracks" staff met Tuesday evening at the high school. Those who attended the Editors' Roundtable at Cullowhee gave informative reports. The second issue of "Bear Tracks" is now going to press.

Two more new homes are to be added to the community. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Henderson have sold their house to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stamey, and plan to build a new home across the road in the wooded area. Mr. and Mrs. Gwen Broyles are to begin the construction of a new home on the Tatham property this week.

W. T. Cabe of Newbery, N. Y., visited relatives and friends here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skeen and daughter, Martha, of Kansas City, Mo., visited relatives in the community Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Skeen is the former Miss Betty Jean Rice of Beaverdam.

Our Black Bears journeyed to Knoxville Saturday to see the Tennessee-Alabama game, and had a great time.

Rev. F. Woodward To Hold Revival In Hazelwood

The Rev. Frederick Z. Woodward, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Saint Albans, W. Va., will be guest minister at the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church for a week of services beginning October 29th and concluding with the Sunday evening service on November 4th.

Mr. Woodward is a graduate of Columbia Theological Seminary with two years of graduate study in the University of Edinburgh. He has toured Europe, Scandinavia and the Holy Lands.

He has served the Church as director and speaker in many pioneer and senior youth conferences and camps. He is a singer of note, and he sings the great hymns.

His inspiring messages have influenced many in making decisions for Christ.

Each morning from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. Tuesday through Friday, Mr. Woodward will teach in a morning Bible Study hour, a devotional to which the public is invited. The morning service is being sponsored by the senior high Fellowship of the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church.

Services will commence each evening, Monday through Sunday, at 7:30 p.m.
