

TOMMY PARRIS, talented reserve halfback, picked the Mountaineers' only touchdown against Brevard Monday night in the last three minutes of the game by crashing over from the six. Other WTHS players here are Bear Turner and Tom Sparks. (Mountaineer Photos).

BREVARD BACK CHARLES WINCHESTER, who scored on his team's three touchdowns against Waynesville Monday night, here is halted by a Mountaineer tackler as Cecil Lowery of Brevard and Neal Palmer of WTHS move into the play.

SAM LANE, Mountaineer quarterback, made a nice punt return in the Brevard game Monday night before being downed by a Blue Devil tackler. Other Brevard players identifiable are tackle Jimmy Hamilton and guard Bill Rogers.

Charlie Carpenter Made A Good Showing Against Florida State Saturday

WINSTON-SALEM — Has quarterback Charlie Carpenter finally come around to a position where he will help the Wake Forest offense?

The 165-pound junior signal caller from Canton showed definite signs in that direction Saturday as the Deacons battled favored Florida State to a 14-14 tie in the mud at Tallahassee.

Coach Paul Amen was very pleased with Carpenter's work against the Seminoles.

"Carpenter had his best day of the season so far," Amen said. "He directed the team very well and played an all around good football game."

After starting the season as the number one quarterback, Carpenter was dropped to the number two spot after a couple of games in favor of Pete Barham.

But it seems now that Carpenter is ready to give Bullet Bill Barnes a little more help with the offensive load. That's something the Deacons have needed all season.

With Carpenter posing as a threat, Florida State had to divert a little attention away from Barnes. The 185-pounder from Landis responded with a performance that rocked the Seminoles defense, one of the tops in the nation, for 151

Brevard Trims Mountaineers 22-7

BY BOB CONWAY

The Waynesville Mountaineers played excellent football for the first three minutes of the game here Monday night—and for the last three. But, in between, the Brevard Blue Devils were in command all the way and put together two passes, two blocked kicks, and a 58-yard run to win, 22-7, for their first victory in history over Waynesville.

The Gold and Black gridders took the opening kickoff and looked like they were off to the races: Grasty ran 32 yards to the Brevard 38, Palmer ripped through the line for eight, and then Grasty picked up a first down for the Mountaineers on the Brevard 21.

However, at that point the Blue Devils dug in, yielded only one yard on two line plays and then baited down two passes.

Unable to gain, Brevard punted to the Mountaineers, who picked up another first down before having another drive stall on the Brevard 41.

After Waynesville was forced to punt, the Blue Devils got possession of the ball on their own 36. On the first play from scrimmage, quarterback Larry Picklesimer faded back calmly and threw a long pass to Jimmy Rhodes, who had gotten beyond Waynesville's defenders. Rhodes took the pass on the Waynesville 35 and ran over untouched. Wayne Babb kicked the first of three extra points.

At the start of the second quarter, the WTHS offense again failed to generate any power and halfback Carroll Bowland dropped back to punt, but his kick was blocked by Brevard back Phil Moody and the Blue Devils recovered the ball on the Waynesville 12.

Two five-yard penalties prolonged the agony while the Mountaineers were making an excellent seal line stand against Brevard's line smashes, but Picklesimer took to the air again and hit Moody with a touchdown pass. Babb again booted the extra point.

Near the end of the second quarter, Waynesville got a break by getting a first down on the Brevard 30 after a short punt. However, the Gold and Black then came up with three plays that looked like something straight out of a Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis routine.

Hooper first lost 10 yards trying to circle right end. Bill Moore then came in and threw a scathnaw pass right into the hands of a Brevard back who was unable to hang onto the ball. On the next play, quarterback Sam Lane took the ball from the center, took one step to the rear, and then slipped and fell flat on his back. At that point, the half ended.

As the second half opened, Waynesville received but again could not get moving, and was forced to kick—with the punt traveling 14 yards to the WTHS 48.

Brevard, also, was unable to gain and punted to Hooper who was downed on his own 17. A 15-yard penalty for clipping took the ball back to the two-yard line. Unable to get out of that hole, the Mountaineers tried to kick out of danger, but Rowland's punt was again blocked and Waynesville recovered in the end zone for a safety—making the count 16-0. Waynesville then had to kickoff from their own 20 to a Brevard back who returned to his own 42. On the first play from scrimmage, Charles Winchester took a hand-off, found a big hole over the Mountaineers' right tackle and raced 58 yards without a hand being laid on him. Babb again made the placement good.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Waynesville threatened again by picking up three first downs, two of which were set up by passes caught by Tom Sparks and the third a run by Grasty to the Brevard 20. Two plays later, however, a pass interception halted the Mountaineers on the 15.

With time running out, the Gold and Black finally broke the scoring ice when Neal Palmer returned a Brevard punt to the BHS 29. Reserve back Tommy Parris broke through to the 15 and two plays later he slipped over from the six. Grasty added the extra point on a plunge.

The game ended a short time later with the Blue Devils in possession of the ball.

Waynesville had an edge in both first downs—6 to 2—and yards rushing—135 to 109.

Hendersonville Wins Over Mountaineer Midgets, 6-0

The Mountaineer Midget football team outplayed Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice's small-fry grid team from Hendersonville here Tuesday night, but a pass play and thick mud on the field combined to give the visitors a 6-0 victory.

However, the Waynesville-Hazelwood youngsters moved the ball well and gained a big edge in first downs and yards rushing over Hendersonville.

In the third quarter, Ronnie Scruggs caught a pass on the Hendersonville two-yard line to give the locals a first down at that point. However, on the next play Rowe Leatherwood tried to circle left end, but fell on the 10 and the Mountaineer Midgets were unable to make up the deficit.

Hendersonville's lone touchdown came in the third quarter on a pass play that covered 50 yards.

Rufus Pannell, assistant coach, praised the defensive play of Leatherwood, a back, and of guard Eugene Ferguson and ends Ronnie Scruggs and Jack Prevost.

Mud on the WTHS field was churned up from the previous night's game between the Waynesville and Brevard varsity squads.

Saturday morning in front of Belk's Department Store on Main St., Waynesville, mothers of the Mountaineer Midgets will hold a

'Great Locomotive Chase' Coming To Strand Sunday

Walt Disney's "The Great Locomotive Chase," which starts Sunday at the Strand, produced on location in Cinemascope, with Fess Parker and Jeffrey Hunter in the top starring roles, is basically a spy thriller dramatized from a Civil War episode that might have changed history had it succeeded.

It developed as a result of a daring scheme blue-printed by a Union raiding party to cut the Confederacy in two by crippling the vital railroad artery between the big supply base at Atlanta and the central front at Chattanooga.

This high-speed tale of espionage, pictured authentically in "The Great Locomotive Chase," is known as the famous "Andrews Raid" of 1862. It involved two locomotives, the "General," stolen by James J. Andrews, and the "Texas," grabbed by Confederate train conductor William A. Fuller to frustrate the plot. In the Disney production, Andrews is portrayed by Fess Parker and Fuller is characterized by Jeffrey Hunter.
