

Third Auction Is Scheduled November 3

The Waynesville area's third community auction will be held on the courthouse parking lot Saturday, November 3, according to Ned J. Tucker, executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sales last week at the auction totalled $107.25, with a commission of $14.35.

The second sale, conducted last Saturday, produced more items for sale and attracted a larger crowd than at the first auction, October 13, but many of the items put up for auction last week were not sold because their owner refused the bid offered.

Mr. Tucker said that experience at the first two auctions has shown that household items and used equipment sell the best.

Farmers are also asked to bring livestock, but pigs offered for sale should be castrated beforehand, Mr. Tucker pointed out.

Auctioneer at the sale last Saturday was R. C. Gossett of Canton.

A DISCUSSION of the importance of school lunchrooms is the subject of these three who are appearing on a series of programs throughout the county. ### Modern Sewing Tricks For Younger Stylish Spooks

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

EVEN HALLOWEEN COSTUMES are up to new tricks. Mothers accustomed to raiding the ragbag for materials to stitch up outfits for junior spooks and witches now get an unexpected assist from the medicine cabinet. The new colorful star-studded plastic strip bandages make gay trimmings for small-fry costumes.

Local sewing center experts suggest making a witch costume by stitching up a basic smock out of inexpensive black cotton fabric. Use a commercial pattern or cut the front and back of the dress in a T-shape and sew side seams together. Use a drawstring to shape the neck.

Make a triangular orange shawl and edge the shawl with the new decorative plastic bandages. Cut between the bandages to make a scalloped effect. Trim the belt with more bandages, baste patches on the skirt and use the plastic strips to hold down the edges.

Methodist Men Will Meet Monday Night

The regular quarterly dinner meeting of the Methodist Men's Fellowship will be held at the Maggie Church Monday evening, October 29.

Rowe Henry, superintendent of the Canton City Schools will be the guest speaker.

Church groups are requested to notify Sherrill Jimson at 2382 in Canton or Herbert Morgan at GL 6-6051 in Waynesville by 12 o'clock Monday as to the number expected to attend the meeting.

This is the first meeting of the new conference year, and a full attendance is called for.

UP-TO-DATE WITCH . . . Her costume can be whipped up in a jiffy on the sewing machine and trimmed with the gay new colored, star-studded plastic bandages.

Just before Election Day, November 6, the nation's 4,175,134 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and their leaders will place on the doorknobs of 35,000,000 homes Liberty Bell hangers, shown above, urging every citizen to vote. The Scouts' "Get-out-the-Vote" campaign is being conducted in cooperation with the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge. It is entirely non-partisan, without reference to any candidate or party.
