

The Younger Set

AT W.T.H.S.

JOAN Y. NOLAND — Editors — PATSY CLARK

This has been an unusually quiet week at W.T.H.S. About the only excitement has been the electing of the representatives for the Harvest Queen. The Sub-Deb Club will sponsor Phyllis Morgan; 4-H will sponsor Joan Bradley; annual staff will sponsor Janice Belk; FHA will sponsor Katherine Frady; Local Yoke staff will sponsor Grey Watkins; Student Council will sponsor Marty Watkins; Band will sponsor Dody Prevost and Monogram Club Argedella Turner. Let's all bring our pennies and support the girl we want to win.

Wednesday morning I saw some students carrying some chairs. I inquired about this and found out they were moving into the new class rooms. I know the study hall teachers will be happy with this change as they have been keeping study hall in the gymnasium.

The pep session that was held Thursday morning put us all in a good spirit for the football game Friday night. The boys played a good game last week and we hope they will do as well this Friday when we travel to meet Elizabethton.

The band has been having usual night practices and have worked up a new show to present at

History Of Election Day Cited By Senator Ervin

By SENATOR SAM ERVIN
WASHINGTON—Election Day is Tuesday, November 6.

WHY THE DATE?
In 1845, the phrase, "Tuesday next after the first Monday" of November, first appeared in federal legislation pertaining to elections. In that year, a bill was passed establishing a uniform election day for the election of Presidential electors. The bill in its original form sought to fix the first Tuesday in the month of November as election day for the electors. Later, the bill was amended changing the date to "the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November". Why the amendment? It is suggested that the reason for offering the amendment to the original proposal was to avoid the necessity of changing the law on which the Electoral College was required to meet.

I have not been able to find any reason for selecting Tuesday over any other day for the election.

States' Role

Of course, the States are given the right under the Constitution to set the date they please for their elections, but the Congress has the authority to determine the date for the election of Presidential Electors.

Uniform

In 1872, Congress, in passing the Apportionment Act, chose the same day for the election of members of the House of Representatives as for the election of Presidential Electors. The argument was advanced during the debate that there was lack of uniformity in election days and there was the hope advanced that the State constitutions would be changed to conform to a uniform date, for the Apportionment Bill would have no effect on State elections as such, and it was not intended to have any effect on State elections as such.

But there was a feeling against the number of times a citizen had to go to the polls.

Later on, Congress chose the same day for the election of United States Senators.

Maine Differs

Citizens of Maine vote twice, once in their State elections in September, and, of course, for the Presidential Electors in November just as the other States. But the other States have brought their constitutional provisions regarding general elections in accord with "the Tuesday next after the first Monday" of November.

When you cast your ballot on November 6, you will be going to the voting place simultaneously with Americans in all the 48 States thanks to the efforts of those who worked for a uniform election day. Perhaps it is hard to imagine a time when the dates were not uniform, but it did exist.

I hope that you will vote on November 6.

Clarke Predicting Victory In Race For Congress

Richard (Dick) Clarke, Jr., Hendersonville, was optimistic today over his prospects of being elected to Congress next Tuesday.

Clarke was here with his campaign manager, Phil Green, on another swing out west. Clarke said things looked mighty fine in his home county, and Transylvania, and were growing more encouraging daily in Swain, Cherokee, Graham, Clay and Jackson.

Young Republican Clubs have been organized in every county in the district.

Haywood and Buncombe were termed as "strongholds" for his opposition, Clarke said, but added: "We have active and progressive young Republican clubs in both areas, and if hard work counts, then we will be there."

Clarke said he had been working hard in Haywood especially in the Canton area, and had addressed a group in Maggie, and found much enthusiasm in all areas.

Clarke's manager, Green, predicted victory, as he pointed out a large vote for the district. He said he felt the young Republican Clubs would help bring out the extra large vote. Clarke served in the Air Force from 1942 to 1946, in the Pacific area. He was recalled to duty from 1951 to 1953 in the European theatre.

WACO, Tex. (AP) — A steady increase in student-owned automobiles is giving Baylor University here some headaches.

This year, there are only 1,022 parking spaces on the campus and 2,000 cars are registered for campus parking.

Dean of Men W. C. Perry said each new parking space costs the university $500. Four new parking areas have been added since last year and three are being constructed.

This still doesn't keep up with demand.
