Francis Cove, West Pigeon, and Fines Creek also are expected to enter a contestant, but had not selected their representative by noon today.

The event will be sponsored by the Haywood Electric Membership Corp.

To be elected at the meeting will be five officers and 12 directors for the Haywood County CDP Council. For this election, a slate of nominees will be presented by a committee made up of R. C. Boone of Francis Cove, Mrs. Walter Rhodamer of South Clyde, and Mrs. Raymond Caldwell of Iron Duff.

Attention Hemorrhoid (Pile) Sufferers

A Wonderful New Discovery Just Put On The Market. An ointment that has been used for the past two years by a prominent M. Holly, N. C., doctor who states, "During the past thirty-seven years of general practice I have used all the well known and accepted remedies for the relief of hemorrhoids—without a doubt the formula known as SUTHERINE gives the most satisfactory relief that I have ever used." SUTHERINE is especially recommended for the soothing relief of pain and itching in hemorrhoids (piles). In many cases bleeding has been stopped. Ask for SUTHERINE at all drug stores. (Adv.) added to the Haywood books. One clerk will be allowed each precinct for each 300 eligible voters. The first clerk will be a Democrat, the second a Republican. The clerks will be named by the registrars of each precinct.

Chairman Carver told the registrars here Friday as they came to pick up their supplies and ballots, that "I do not favor designated markers at the polls. Any person needing a marker can have any member of their family assist, any election official, or call in any person once. The marker, in all cases, must stay away from the booth and assisting in the marking and staying back from the boxes."

Tuesday will be a holiday for schools, banks, and courthouse offices.

Scott

cold reality of being split with our Western allies. Aside from what is right or wrong, we are going one way and France and England are going another — which is what Communist Russia has been trying to get us to do since World War II. While Dulles goes dillyng and dallyng, the very foundations of the free world are quivering and shaking."

"A vote for Eisenhower," Scott said, "is a vote for a foreign policy that doesn't know where it is going or what it is going to do when it gets there."

Scott charged that Eisenhower is suffering from "millionaire fever" and heads an administration which believes "government should be operated by and for millionaires, with only the leftovers trickling down to the masses of the people."

"Belaboring the 'millionaire fever' theme, Scott recalled Defense Secretary Wilson's 'What's good for General Motors is good for the country' remark, and White House Advisor Howard Pyle's quoted comment that 'The right to suffer is one of the joys of a free economy.'"

Turning to Secretary of Agriculture Benson, Scott said it would take him "several days" to list "Cousin Ezra's" record.

Scott charged that in a recent instance involving 35,000,000 bushels of wheat the Burrus Mills Co. in Texas "sold the government the idea . . . of storing wheat under a tent . . . A circus tent sort of affair."

Scott said that the wheat rotted and "somewhere between $5,000,000 and $7,000,000 had been lost!"

Scott said the Agriculture Department then "signed an astonishing contract with Burrus and 13 major banks under which almost all of the government claims were waived in favor of the banks."

"Under this contract, signed just last July, the Department of Agriculture flushed down the drain most of the rights it had to protect itself against loss from what was in the beginning a highly questionable operation."

"Instead, it fixed things so the banks would make a lot of money but couldn't lose any . . . it just so happens that President Eisenhower's brother, Arthur Eisenhower, is executive vice president of one of the banks involved."

"I am sure this was just a coincidence, because, in case you haven't heard, we have an administration in Washington that is just as clean as a hound's tooth."

Scott called a vote for Eisenhower "a vote for Secretary Benson, the most powerful enemy known to the small family-size farm."

Scott said Vice President Nixon "is a man who knows no bounds to expediency. He is Tricks Dick . . . that is the kind of man who is just a heartbeat from the Presidency . . . the man whom President Eisenhower has chosen to succeed him."

Some 700 persons gathered to hear Sen. Scott.

U. S. Rep. George A. Shuford introduced Scott, Loranzo Smathers, chairman of the Haywood County Democratic executive committee, presided and introduced campaign workers and office holders.

Glenn William Brown, Waynesville attorney, introduced Rep. Shuford.

The Clyde refreshment committee served more than 700 with coffee, doughnuts, and cold drinks. Many of the 700 were in no hurry to leave, but stayed and discussed the night's program, and the coming election.

Rally Sidelights

Congressman Shuford got a big hand when he mentioned that back in 1952 there was a lot of "time for a change" talk, and he felt the words were worth heeding now.

Senator Scott and Congressman Shuford sported a big red rose, while Mrs. Sara Brown, precinct chairman of Clyde, wore a yellow corsage — all said they were "victory flowers."

The Champion Y. Midget Dance team put a lot of life into the audience as they stepped off some fast and fancy figures during the entertainment part of the program.

Chairman Loranzo Smathers was at his best as master of ceremonies, and kept things moving at high gear, for what was termed the largest political rally held in Haywood in many years.

Every precinct was represented, and these along with county officials, Clyde committee members, county groups, and managers for the three Democratic headquarters were presented to the audience in fast order.

Miss Joyce Hannah, Cataloochee, was the soloist while the stage was being arranged for the large group of dignitaries to be seated.

Mrs. Scott was unable to make the trip, as planned, but the Senator carried her a copper waste basket, a gift from the Dellwood Home Demonstration Club, which was presented during the dinner by Mrs. Paul Robinson, of Clyde, historian of the Haywood HD
