DAR Chapter Has Program On American Creed

Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, Jr. and Mrs. R. D. Coleman, Jr were hostesses for the November meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick at Crabtree.

Mrs. Robert Osborne presented the program on "The American Creed." She reviewed the history of the organization of the American form of government and told of current agencies working to weaken the government. She discussed the work of the DAR in upholding the American heritage and told the history of the Creed, which was written in 1916 by William Tyler Page, descendant of John Tyler, a president of the U.S. The Creed was selected following a national contest.

Mrs. Hugh Leach reviewed the DAR Magazine, reading the Thanksgiving message of the President General.

Mrs. Beu Colkitt, regent, read a letter from veterans at Oteen expressing their appreciation for gifts sent by the chapter for their Halloween bingo party. She announced that Christmas gifts for the Oteen patients will be brought to the December meeting.

Following a report by Mrs. R. B. Barker, Red Cross chairman, the chapter voted to donate $5.00 to the Red Cross to be used for Thanksgiving flowers for veterans' hospitals.

Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Mrs. Robert Osborne were named as a committee to plan additional planting at the Memorial Plot at Green Hill Cemetery.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter of sympathy to the family of the late Mrs. Joseph Silverstein of Brevard, who was a prominent member of the DAR.

During the social hour the hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. Kirkpatrick's daughters, Helen and Sara Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Burton McCroba was a guest.
