Haywood Baptists Plan A 6-Session School Of Music

A 6-session School of Music has been planned for later this month by the Haywood Baptist Association, according to Jack Medford, association chairman.

The school will begin with a county-wide hymn sing on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 25, 3 p.m. at the Clyde Baptist church.

Beginning Monday evening, Nov. 26, sessions will be held each evening at the Clyde church through Friday, Nov. 30. All sessions will begin at 7 p.m., chairman Medford said.

Four classes will be held each session, with a general group class of combined choirs being led by Joseph O. Stroud, secretary of the State Baptist Department of Church Music.

Other instructors will be Carl Perry, minister of music, First Baptist Church, Asheville, on Theory.

Mrs. Robert Seymour, teacher of organ, Mars Hill, will teach gospel singing and hymn singing. Rev. T. E. Robinett, pastor, First Baptist Church, Waynesville, will conduct a class on hymnology.

Jack Medford, minister of music, Canton, will teach a class of conducting.

On Friday evening, 8 p.m., the combined choirs directed by Stroud will present a program of music, which will be for the general public.

Abraham Lincoln was a man who changed parties. He was first a Whig, later became Republican.
