

Sara Ann Hoyle Is Married To W. H. Hunter

Miss Sara Ann Hoyle, daughter of George R. Hoyle of Asheville and the late Mrs. Hoyle, became the bride of William H. Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Hunter of Waynesville, Sunday, November 11, at 2:30 p.m. in the Green Valley Missionary Baptist Church here.

The Rev. George Mehahey performed the double ring ceremony. A program of music was presented by Mrs. Alna Hyatt, pianist, and Mrs. Allen Hyatt, soloist.

Arrangements of white gladioli and ivy decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light blue suit with matching hat and shoes. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid.

Mrs. James C. Gossett of West Asheville was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gray suit with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man and ushers were C. W. Harkley of Asheville and Tommy Seagrams of Waynesville, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Perry Ruff, sister of the bride, wore a light blue wool suit and her corsage was of pink carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy dress and her corsage was also of pink carnations.

Mrs. Hunter is a graduate of North Buncombe High School and is now employed with Mars Hosiery Co., West Asheville.

Mr. Hunter was graduated from Waynesville Township High School and is now serving in the Navy aboard the USS Badoeng Strait.

The bride will remain with her parents until January when she will join her husband in Breerton, Washington.

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, a cake cutting was given for members of the bridal party in the home of Mrs. Perry Ruff. Assisting were Mrs. Connie Muse, Mrs. Ford Cruse, and Mrs. Tommy Seagrams.

MRS. BRIDGES IMPROVING

Mrs. M. T. Bridges, who underwent surgery on Monday at the Haywood County Hospital, is getting along nicely. She expects to return home the early part of next week.

MISS SUE ADDRESS CAMPBELL is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell of Waynesville, who announce her engagement to Joseph C. Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Morrow of Waynesville, Route 4. The wedding is planned for December 23. (H. B. Norton Photo).

MISS SYLVIA ANN CAMLIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Camlin of Lake Junaluska, recently won two distinct honors within the same week at Western Carolina College.

She was notified of her selection for Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities, and was elected May Queen in a student election. In this latter capacity she will lead a court of girls voted most beautiful from their respective classes, and will reign over May Day festivities next spring.

Dean W. B. Harrill said students are selected for Who's Who on the basis of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and effective participation in campus activities.

Miss Camlin is a member of the college chorus; Future Teachers of America; Association for Childhood Education; Marshal's Club; and the Student Senate. She is vice president of Woman's House Government.

In addition to numerous other beauty honors, Miss Camlin has been a member of the May Court at Western Carolina College each year since she entered college, and has been in the Homecoming Court for the past three years.

Mrs. Noel Phillips and children, Nancy, and Wally Wiebe, left today to join Mr. Phillips in Knoxville where they will make their home.

Smart Selection

By VERA WINSTON

THIS dress is a shining example of the chic choice for important cocktail parties or small but impressive dinners. The fabric is a rich deep sapphire blue peau de sole that is handled most effectively. The neckline is scooped front and back. The front of the dress is sheath-like, the only line breaking the silhouette being a fold below the waist which terminates in a bow above the pleated-in back fullness. This is a separate panel.
