The show will last for two hours.

No Barking

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Judges at the 36th annual Wisconsin Designer-Craftsman Show had to admit the coat woven by Mrs. Belle Schultz of Milwaukee was her pet project.

The wrap was nothing unusual, but the wool!

The wool was the combings from her pet Scotch collie.

Hot Paint Used

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—New highway striping equipment which applies hot paint to highways, is now being used by the Oregon State Highway Dept.

The paint is heated right in the machine and reaches the road at approximately 160 degrees. The drying time of the paint is also speeded up in this machine.

Watch Those Wages

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—You can ask the government for an audit of the wages collected for social security. A University of Michigan economist advises people to do so.

Prof. Wilford J. Eitmen pointed out that those who fail to have their credits checked periodically cannot have errors corrected after a three-year period without consent of their employer.

Canine Cutie

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP)—The police sent out the warning to watch for a dog wearing a petticoat.

The canine was witnessed stealing newly-washed garments from a clothesline at an Alamogordo home.

Still Used

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Lewis Glaser has moved his business here from Williamsburg. He makes goose quill pens. His largest single customer is the U. S. Supreme Court which, by tradition, signs its decrees with goose pens.
