Lunchroom Group Met Monday Night At Fines Creek

The fourth of a series of dinner programs on the importance of school lunchrooms was held Monday night at Fines Creek, with about 50 attending. Prior meetings have been held at Hazelwood, WTHS, and Bethel.

Mrs. Rufus Siler, supervisor of lunchrooms, said plans were to hold a similar meeting at Crabtree-Iron Duff and Clyde in the near future. Charles Ross, principal at Fines Creek, was master of ceremonies, and presided. Carl Painter led the group singing.

Talks on the value of the lunchroom program were given by Mrs. Siler, Lawrence Leatherwood, county superintendent of education; Mrs. Grace Stamey, and Mrs. Bell Ratcliffe, supervisors, and Mrs. Rubye Bryson, public health nurse.

Recognition was given the two lunchroom workers, Mrs. Tilda Brown and Mrs. Eunice Clark.
