'PEACE FORCE' GATHERS IN NAPLES

THE UNITED NATIONS "peace task force" gets a boost from Colombia as a contingent of troops from that country arrives in Naples, Italy, staging area for the 6,000-man, multi-nation force. The troops are being rushed to safeguard the peace in Egypt. The latter nation has agreed to admit the force provided there is no infringement on the sovereignty of Egypt in the policing. Danny Caldwell, Bob McCracken, and Johnny Rogers will represent our football team Thursday in the Senior Bowl. We are proud of these boys. Also one of the managers will be Mike Rogers, a member of our sophomore class.

A donkey ball game will be played in the gymnasium November 27.

The Lion's Club also is sponsoring a supper in the school cafeteria December 14 for the Athletic Association. Proceeds from both events will be used to help buy new uniforms for the basketball teams.

The football banquet has been tentatively set for November 30.

The PTA recently purchased five record players for use in the elementary grades. The school has placed an order for five more. Our goal is one for each elementary classroom. An order has already been placed for Christmas records.

A tape recorder also has been purchased for use by all classrooms.

Mr. Griffin and his boys are planning to paint and put a mar-proof finish around the court in the gymnasium while we are out for Thanksgiving. These boys have recently re-painted the bleachers.

Mrs. Soesbee's classroom has been furnished with new chairs recently.

Our band gave a good performance at the Haywood county section of the NCEA meeting last Thursday night.

A bake sale was held Saturday

Fine Shot

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A student was taken before Judge Roy Proctor for firing his shot-gun on the University of Wisconsin campus.

The youth said he had been on a hunting trip without seeing a thing and wanted to shoot his gun at least once.

The judge fined him $25.

by the Beta Club and they made a good profit on it.

A photographer from Delmar Studios came last Tuesday and took pictures for the annual.
