79 Deer Killed In Sherwood Wildlife Refuge This Year

A total of 79 deer were killed in the Sherwood Wildlife Refuge during the two-week hunting season which ended last Saturday, it has been announced.

This figure represents an increase of 13 over last year's total of 66 for Sherwood.

Dillard Hooper, game protector at West Fork, said that 62 deer were killed on West Fork this year as compared with 52 last year. The total for Big East Fork was 17 this year and 16 last year.

During the Cattle Camp wilderness hunt this year, 26 hunters bagged six deer.

The number of hunters in Sherwood this year amounted to an increase of 83 over 1955 — from 1,379 to 1,462, Mr. Hooper said. Of that number, 1,131 hunters checked in during the past season at West Fork and another 331 at East Fork.

Watch Those Leaves!

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Samuel Guss, veterinarian at Pennsylvania State University reports wild cherry or chokecherry leaves damaged by frost produce prussic acid, a poison fatal to many animals.

A handful of these leaves can kill a cow or several sheep, Dr. Guss said. Removal of the trees is the only permanent control.

Double Duck

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — Tommy Woodgeard bagged two ducks with one shot recently at nearby Scott's Creek. It wasn't beginners' luck. Tommy, 14, has been hunting with his dad for seven years.

The 1893 University of North Carolina football team held nine rivals to a total of eight points.

COURTNEY SETS OLYMPIC RECORD

TOM COURTNEY (153), of Livingston, N. J., puts everything he has into his final strides as he wins the 800-meter Olympic final at Melbourne, Australia, edging Derek Johnson (137), Great Britain. Courtney covered the distance in 1:47.7 and shattered the Olympic record for the event. Audun Boyson (partially hidden), Norway, was third in the record-breaking race. (International Radiophoto)
