

Marion Rose Underhill Weds John Webb West, Jr.

Miss Marion Rose Underhill of Miami, Fla., became the bride of John Webb West, Jr., also of Miami in the Bryan Memorial Methodist Church at Coconut Grove, Florida, Saturday, December 8, at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Underhill of Yardley, Birmingham, England.

Mr. West is the son of John W. West, Sr., of Waynesville and the late Mrs. Lovell Montez Davis West and is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. G. West of Waynesville.

The Rev. H. Stewart Austin, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and a program of music was presented by Mrs. Betty Cliff Rice, organist, and Mrs. Ella Mae Huff, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William A. Critchley of Vero Beach, Florida. She wore a gown of French lace and nylon tulle, styled on princess lines with a bouffant skirt ending in a sweeping train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of pearl petals and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses and carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara Martinez of Miami was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length princess dress of iridescent blue taffeta.

James L. Thompson served as best man and ushers were Jerome Filer, Eugene Lyon, and Roy W. Spence, Jr., all of Miami.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. Receiving with the wedding party were Mr. and Mrs. William Critchley, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Karl G. Frese.

The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip to points in Florida and upon their return will be at home at 2468 SW 7th Street, Apt. 5, Miami 35, Florida. For traveling the bride wore a maroon wool dress with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. West was educated in England and was active in the Girl Guide Association. She came to the United States two years ago and met Mr. West in the choir of Bryan Memorial Methodist church where both are active members.

Mr. West was graduated from the Waynesville Township High School, Brevard College, and the University of North Carolina. He is now chief clerk of the Miami Beach Area Office, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army.

Smart Separates

By VERA WINSTON

NICE go-togethers invariably include the velvet skirt and pretty blouse, the two adding up to a nice informal late afternoon or evening outfit. This black velvet skirt is ever so slim with a kick-pleat in back to ease things a little. The blouse is as practical as it is pretty since the fabric is one of the good drip-dry cottons with a sliken look and feel. The sleeves are permanently pleated and there are crystal buttons. A string tie of black velvet finishes the demure little collar.

The Mehaffys Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson Mehaffey celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday afternoon in their home on the Fairview Road.

They were assisted in entertaining by their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of Lake Junaluska and Mrs. and Mrs. Ray Caldwell of Waynesville.

About one hundred and fifty guests called during the afternoon hours and were greeted by Mrs. Edwards. Presiding at the tea table during alternate hours were Mrs. E. W. Edwards of Durham, Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, Mrs. R. L. Burgin, Mrs. George Platt, Mrs. Frank Morrison, Mrs. Thad Chafin, Mrs. Sam Knight, Mrs. John Blalock, Mrs. C. R. Little, and Mrs. John Davis.

The table was covered with an imported embroidered linen cloth and the centerpiece was an arrangement of gold and white chrysanthemums in a crystal compote. Gold and white candles were also used.

Mrs. Willard Moody was in charge of the guest register and Mrs. Wallace Ward received in the guest room. Assisting in serving were Mrs. May Ellis, Mrs. Charles McDarris, Miss Edna Summerrow, and Mrs. Charles Isley.

Mr. and Mrs. Mehaffey, both natives of Haywood County, were married at Piesani Palsam on December 9, 1906. Mr. Mehaffey is shipping foreman with the Unagusta Manufacturing Company.
