Canton Auxiliary Will Meet Tuesday

The Canton unit of American Legion Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Moody on Academy St. on Tuesday, December 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Yule Decoration Contest Plans Are Announced

The Richland Garden Club will sponsor its annual outdoor Christmas decorations contest in the community, with Mrs. William Medford serving as chairman.

This year contestants will not be required to register with the garden club, but judges will make a tour of the entire Waynesville area and judge all decorations as seen from the outside.

Cash prizes will be awarded in two divisions—home decorations and business windows. There will be two classifications for business, one to include stores with the customary type decorations and the second to include stores with decorations carrying out a special theme.

Bette Limer was a guest of Limestone College in Gaffney, S. C., for High School Weekend Friday and Saturday. She was joined by her mother, Mrs. H. L. Limer, Jr. and they went on to Florence, S. C., for a brief visit with Mrs. Limer's mother, Mrs. T. Waring Johnston.

Holiday Events Are Planned By Canton Clubs

"Keeping Christmas" will be the theme of the Holiday House Tour and Flower Show, sponsored by the Canton Council of Garden Clubs, Tuesday, December 18, from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m.

The flower show will be held in the assembly room of the Canton Public Library. The homes of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freel and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyatt will be included in the tour, and also the Canton Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. A. W. Bottoms is serving as general chairman of the event, with Mrs. Frank Vetoe, Jr. as co-chairman.

Mrs. Mehaffey Fetes Brother's Bride-Elect

Miss Shirley Jones of Kannapolis, bride-elect of Dr. Carol Grahl of Brevard, was the guest of honor at a tea given by her fiancée's sister, Mrs. Bill Mehaffey, Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Mehaffey's grandmother, Mrs. H. C. Ferguson.

Receiving with Miss Jones and Mrs. Mehaffey were Mrs. Linwood Grahl, mother of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. Irvin Philman of Washington, D. C., sister of the bridegroom-elect, and Mrs. Ferguson.

During the first hour Mrs. J. M. Carver greeted the guests and Mrs. P. R. Kitchin and Mrs. Hubert Pless presided at the tea table. Mrs. Neeson Smith received at the front door during the second hour and Mrs. Rochelle Allison and Mrs. Billy Owen poured tea. Mrs. Edwin Russell also assisted.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the house with the exception of the dining room where a bridal motif was used. The table was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and snapdragons with ivy.

Two hundred guests were included in the courtesy.

Miss Jones and Dr. Grahl will be married December 30 in Kannapolis. She was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl here.

The Mayflower, which brought the Pilgrims to this country in 1620, was dismantled in England in 1629.

Registration will not be necessary, and judges will visit at sections of the town to determine the best decorated homes and lawns.

Joint Hosts Entertain At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradley entertained jointly at an open house Saturday evening in the Bradley home.

Holiday decorations were used throughout the house. Assisting the hosts in receiving and serving were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whisenand, Dr. and Mrs. Carey Wells, and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Tucker.

One hundred guests were included.
