Clyde, Crabtree At Home Friday; WTHS At Owen

Two high school basketball games will be played on Haywood hardwood tomorrow night — at Clyde and Crabtree—while a third county cage combination will be on the road.

The Cardinals will take on the Mars Hill Wildcats, while Crabtree will play host to strong Walnut, one of the top small teams in this area. Waynesville will travel to Owen High for their second conference clash.

Canton and Bethel were originally scheduled to meet tonight at Bethel, but the game was postponed to February 19 because of Canton's participation in the state Class-AA football playoffs.

The Clyde Cardinals, now 1-1 with a loss to Walnut and a win over Pines Creek, will attempt to better their mark against the usually strong Wildcats of Mars Hill.

Waynesville, with a 3-1 mark, will face their strongest opposition to date when they meet the talented Owen High Warriors. The Mountaineers won their first conference victory of the season Tuesday night by edging Brevard, 41-36.

Waynesville's girls are still undefeated, but have been tied by Pines Creek.

Earlier in the season, Crabtree-Iron Duff dropped a pair to Walnut on the road, but will attempt to do better on their own floor tomorrow night.

The Crabtree girls are still celebrating their upset win, 29-28, over the powerful Bethel Belles Tuesday night.

Esther Williams Scores Hit In Epic Of Suspense

Esther Williams, in the first non-swimming role she has ever played as a motion picture star, scores a tremendous hit as a dramatic actress in Universal-International's "The Unguarded Moment," a compelling story of suspenseful excitement which opens Sunday at the Strand theatre.

Sharing starring honors with handsome George Nader and John Saxon, a talented young newcomer destined for certain popularity among moviegoers, Esther delivers an inspiring performance in the role of a high school music teacher who becomes the frightened victim of an assault attempt.

Nader, whose past work in films has already established him as one of Hollywood's top male stars, matches Miss Williams' superlative portrayal with a solid competence as he creates the role of a determined young detective who unravels the mystery and at the same time falls in love with the victim of the crime.

Young Saxon plays with power and skill the part of the high school football star on whom suspicion falls.

Such teams as Enka, Monaghan and Western Carolina Jayvees are also on the Dayton schedule after the Christmas holidays.

Coach Noble Arrington said yesterday, "We can't really tell how we will stack up with the big boys since we have been playing most of our games in the WNC League so far. Of course, we have the best team we have ever had at Dayton Rubber, but we are meeting the strongest teams that we have ever tried."

Player-manager Bob Brannon pointed out that the schedule just after Christmas is very rough. He said: "With three games each week and those with such teams as Beacon Mills, Champion, Monaghan, and Greer, S. C., we are expecting a lot of trouble."

Greer, S. C. Rockets Next For Dayton

The Dayton Rubber Company Thorobreds are expected to have some trouble Saturday night when they meet the Greer, S. C. "Rockets" formerly of the Dixie League. Leon Gravelly, Dixie League point ace, is expected to give the Thorobreds their first real test of strength for the season.

Such teams as Enka, Monaghan and Western Carolina Jayvees are also on the Dayton schedule after the Christmas holidays.

SISTER ACT on the Waynesville Mountaineer cage squad this season will be presented by Amelia Nichols (left), a guard, and Dickie Nichols, a forward. In her varsity game against Murphy Saturday night, Dickie scored 13 points. (Mountaineer Photo).

The Dayton Thorobreds ran their winning streak into five straight victories in the Western North Carolina League Monday night as they downed the Burnsville All-Stars 107-60. The Thorobreds have suffered only one defeat this season and that was a non-league game to Brevard College 88-77.

Three men, Tommy Owens, Neil Stamey, and "Swede" Frauson, hit for 16 points each, while Bobby Kuykendall led with 24 points. Joe Aldridge's final second shot was judged too late. Aldridge fired the ball from three quarters court for what many fans have termed the longest shot they have ever seen.

The Thorobreds are at home again tonight as they play host to Hendersonville American Legion at 7:30 on the Waynesville High School court. Frank Drake, former all-American at Wofford College, is expected to be playing for the Legion team. The Dayton girls meet the Hendersonville All-Star girls in the night-cap game scheduled to begin at 8:30.

The Dayton girls have played only General Electric of Hendersonville in two WNC League games for a 2-0 record. Their WNC League Championship standing will not be contested again until after the first of the year since tonight is their last game until after Christmas.
