

Helen Harkins Is Bride Of F. J. Miller

Miss Helen Louise Harkins, daughter of Mrs. W. C. Rhodamer of Canton, and The late Lloyd L. Harkins, became the bride of Fred J. Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Miller, also of Canton, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Brainard Burrus, on Forest Hill Drive.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. H. Green of Mars Hill, in the presence of members of the immediate families. Traditional wedding music was used.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of silk antique satin, styled with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline of Venice lace, and a full skirt. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle was attached to a pearl tiara, and she carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Burrus was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a waltz length dress of burgandy designed with princess lines, and she carried a nosegay of pink roses.

W. C. Norris of Waynesville was best man.

A reception was held following ceremony. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home on Allen Farm Road, Canton.

Skyland Club Has Meeting

The Skyland Garden Club held its annual Christmas Luncheon Thursday in the home of Mrs. F. E. Worthington with Mrs. David Ling as co-hostess.

Christmas decorations for tables, mantels, doors, and the outside, were exhibited by members and were judged by Miss Louise Ballard (2nd vice president of the North Carolina Garden Club, and Mrs. Arthur Pearson, district director.

The members also brought tree decorations and gifts which will be taken to Dickson's Nursing Home where the gifts will be presented to the patients and three small trees will be decorated.

Guests, in addition to Miss Ballard and Mrs. Pearson, were Mrs. L. J. Ballard, Miss Ray Ballard, Mrs. Julia McClure, and Mrs. Bert Wahlgren.

Mrs. McClure exhibited arrangements of greens.

Woman's Club To Meet Thursday

The December meeting of the Waynesville Woman's Club will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the dining room of the First Methodist Church.

A program of Christmas music will be presented by the Fine Arts Department with Mrs. H. B. Foy and Mrs. H. L. Baughman in charge.

Reports will be given on the district meeting and special projects of the club.

Hostesses will be Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Miss Robina Miller, Mrs. J. R. Hipps, and Mrs. Charles Plemmons.

Among the Western Carolina College students spending the holidays at their homes are Dale Ratcliffe, Sylvia Camlin, Roy Phillips, Jr., Charlie Womack, Charlene Duckett, Judy Anne Wells, Norma Jean Sheffield, Aaron O. Gibson, Patsy McDaniel, and Bobby Balance.

Miss Agnes Fitzhugh Shapter arrived Saturday from Pass-A-Grille Beach, Florida, to spend the holidays in Hazelwood.

Jim Gaddis, student at the University of Tennessee, is spending the Christmas vacation with his parents.

Yule Decorations To Be Judged Thursday Night

Judging of outdoor Christmas decorations for the contest sponsored by the Richland Garden Club will take place Thursday night, December 20, according to Mrs. William Medford, chairman of the contest.

The contest will include two divisions, one for homes and one for commercial displays. The latter will also be divided into two classifications for those which carry out a Christmas theme and those which are usual type of decoration.

Registration will not be necessary since the judges will tour the entire community. However, if there are persons who feel that they might be missed and particularly wish to be judged, they may call Mrs. Medford at GL 6-8915.

Lake Junaluska residents are especially requested to call Mrs. Medford since the judges will have a limited time and will be unable to cover the entire grounds in search for decorations.

Cash prizes will be awarded in each division.

B and PW To Have Christmas Party

The Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Jack Edwards on Overbrook Drive.

Miss Nancy Killian, Miss Margaret Boyd, and Mrs. Edwards are in charge of the program for the evening.

Miss Linda Sloan, a senior at Greensboro College, has arrived to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan.

Mrs. Tai Lee Is Honored At Coffee Hour

Mrs. J. K. Stringfield and Miss Mary Lu Elwood honored Mrs. Tai Lee, a new resident of Waynesville, at a coffee hour Saturday morning in the home of the former.

During the first hour the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. James L. Elwood, Mrs. Thomas Stringfield, and Miss Martha Stringfield. Those assisting the second hour were Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Miss Nancy Killian, and Mrs. Charles Way.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the house and the dining room table was covered with a red cloth and centered with an arrangement of holly and red candles.

About sixty guests called.

Music Club To Meet With Mrs. Curtis

The Waynesville Music Club will meet Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Zeb Curtis, Mrs. H. B. Foy, Mrs. H. L. Baughman, and Miss Amelia MacFadyen will be associate hostesses.

Miss Nancy Killian is in charge of the program.

Miss Sally Stovall, student nurse at Grady Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, has arrived to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Stovall.
