Miss Jeanette Elizabeth Burnette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Burnette of Canton, became the bride of John F. Moore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Robert Spurling, organist, and Miss Thomasine Paxton, vocalist, both of Canton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle and chantilly lace over bridal satin, designed with a bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full skirt, appliqued with lace, featured a cascade of ruffles edged with pleated tulle flowing into a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of rhinestones and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of red roses centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a single-stand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of white net over satin, designed with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts. Their capes and half hats were white taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of white chrysanthemums and red carnations.

Cheryl Ann Moore of Candler, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white net over satin, and carried a basket of rose petals. Jimmie Burnette, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Clarence Moore served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Calvin Dixon and Clayton Moore of Candler, and Earl Farmer and George Allen of Enka.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tighe Smathers, 192 Academy Street, those assisting were Mrs. Clayton Burnette, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Iro Medford, Mrs. J. W. Freeman, and Mrs. Carroll Wilson.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress, white satin hat, and black accessories. Her corsage was of red and white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink dress with matching duster, white hat, and matching accessories. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

For a wedding trip to Miami, Fla., the bride wore a navy dress with white trim, white satin hat, and matching accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet. The couple will make their home at 56 Newfound St., Canton.
