

PROPJET TRANSPORT IN SERVICE

THE U. S. TACTICAL Air Command took a historic step forward when it added the propjet-propelled C-130 Hercules combat transport to its forces. At bottom, a Nike guided missile is loaded on the giant plane (top) at Ardmore Air Force Base, Okla. The Hercules' mission is to supply immediate combat support of men, supplies, ammunition and bomber spare parts anywhere in the world. It has a wingspan of 132.6 feet and can travel at 370 miles an hour. (International)
