ILLUSTRATED CURRENT NEWS, FASHION, HOUSEHOLD and ERTAINMENT For the JUNIORS

Troops Move In to Clean Up Kentucky "Crime Zone"

KENTUCKY National Guardsmen moved secretly into Manchester, Ky., to carry out an order to "clean up" Clay county, whose bloody history led a federal investigator to call it "the worst criminal stronghold in the United States." The croops descended upon the town in the early morning hours in a surprise move by Gov. Ruby Laffoon to break up an alleged automobile theft ring and end other lawlessness. The town is practically under martial law, and Brig. Gen. Ellerbe W. Carter is in command. Photograph shows an air view of Manchester, Ky., with the state guardsmen encamped in trucks in the center of the town.

BEDTIME STORY By THORNTON W. BURGESS

DANNY MEADOW MOUSE VISITS THE SMILING POOL

DANNY MEADOW MOUSE had taken it into his funny little head to go over to the Smiling Pool. Just why he did it nobody knows. Perhaps it was he wanted to con sult Grandfather Frog, who, you know, is accounted very wise. Perhaps he wanted to call on his big cousin, Jerry Muskrat, Perhaps it was because he felt uneasy and wanted to go somewhere for a change of scene. Whatever the reason, Danny unexpectedly appeared one morning on the bank of the Smiling Pool. The very first person he saw was Grandfather Frog, sitting on his big, green lily pad. "Good morn-ing, Grandfather Frog," squeaked Danny. Grandfather Frog turned about in a funny little hop of startled surprise and blinked his great, goggly eyes at Danny Meadow Mouse.

What Are You Doing Over Here, Danny Meadow Mouse?"

"Chugarum," said he in a deep gruff voice. "What are you doing over here, Danny Meadow Mouse?" "Nothing in particular," replied Danny.

"People who are doing nothing in particular are very likely to get into trouble. Don't you know that, Danny Meadow Mouse?" demanded Grandfather Frog.

Grandfather Frog.

"Oh, I guess I can keep out of trouble around here. You're looking yery fine, Grandfather Frog. You don't look a day older than when I last saw you."

"I don't feel a day older," replied Grandfather Frog. and his voice was not quite so gruff. You see, it rather tickled him to be told that he looked no older. "Of course I'm glad to see you, Danny," he continued, "but just the same I think you are taking chances in coming you are taking chances in coming here. Longlegs the Blue Heron comes over here almost every day, and I have an idea that he would just as soon and perhaps a little rather, have a fat Meadow Mouse for his dinner than an old frog like

"I believe you're not glad to see me at all," declared Danny, "You are trying to scare me."

"No such thing," replied Grandia

PAPA KNOWS-

"Pop, what is a poet?"
"Large bow tie."

6. Bell Syndicate—WNU Service

ther Frog gruffly. "But I never like to see anybody take unnecessary risks. You know, I believe in safety first. Now what would you do if Reddy Fox should suddenly appear right behind you? You would be in such a tight place. There isn't a thing you could hide under, and hiding in the grass wouldn't do you a hit of good, for that keen nose of a bit of good, for that keen nose of Reddy's would soon find you."

"Reddy isn't here, so what's the good of borrowing trouble?" squeaked Danny. "It's time enough to worry when there is something to worry about. Did you ever know a finer day, Grandfather Frog?" & T. W. Burgass.—WNU Service.

THIS AND THAT

CANDIES make a delicious gar-nish for simple desserts, and save the time necessary for prepar-ing more elaborate ones. A bit of chocolate or maple fudge crumbled over ice cream, cornstarch pudding, custard, or junket, makes an other-wise plain dessert very stylish wise plain dessert very stylish.

To make an old dust mop practically as good as new put a large tablespoonful of concentrated lye in a pall half full of bolling water and let the mop boll in it. Rinse thoroughly several times and put in the sun to dry.

oughly several times and put in the sun to dry.

One or two tablespoonfuls of kerosene put into the boiler with the clothes will whiten them.

Begin early and start right with the child; this is especially important if he is to be strong, well and an efficient citizen.

The normal child eats with zest the food placed before him. Day-dling over food or refusing to eat it will need hard work to overcome. It is far easier to form good habits than to break had ones.

If the child is accustomed to a variety of foods very early, before he liegins to form likes and dis-

UESTION BOX by ED WYNN, The Perfect Fool-

or twelve years of age on offered a job after ours. I am supposed to the in the basement of siliding every day. In it

Sincerely, L. D. CLARE, It is very easy to learn how to not a rat trap after you once get your hand in.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have a girl friend who is a good swimmer. She told me, yesterday, that she once fell off a boat into the water and a large shark came after her, looked her over, then went away without even touching her. Do you believe that?

Yours truly,

THE ANTREE LEEVIT.

Answer: Sure I believe it. It ust have been a man-eating shark.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am the mother of a girl seventeen years of age. I want her to take up golf, tennis, swimming and other outdoor sports. She refuses and stays in the house. She says she prefers indoor sport. Are indoor sports all right for a girl her age?

Truly woars.

Answer: An indoor sport is all right for a girl, if she knows when to send him home.

MOTHER'S

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am in love with a boy twentyone years of age. He wants me to marry him but he is a spendthrift.
Is it all right for me to marry a spendthrift? Yours truly,

WANDA WHATEDU,

Answer: It is all right if he not starting on his career as pendibrift. Get in on it, kid.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
My husband, who was a fireman, was discharged by the city. The only reason given in his discharge was For acting childish at the last likes, he will like and eat every-thing as he grows older.

It is the very exceptional child thing as he grows older.

It is the very exceptional child who is made ill by certain foods; of course, one must eliminate them in the is found to be a real case. Some children feign illness and nausea to gain attention and something refused.

Truly yours,
HOOLEN LADDER.
Answer: Your husband probable was in charge of the hose grow and
"by acting childish," they mean he played on the rules after the fire was out.

was a postcard.

the Associated Newson:
WNU Service

THE OLD HOME COES

By ANNE CAMPBELL

I heard they sold the lumber for old wood To start the autumn fires with . not much good,

This roof that sheltered me, this house Granddad

Built for his bride when he was

He made the house, and planted the green tree Back of the outdoor kitchen

Valiantly.

It is a gift from God. . . meadowlands Beyond were razed a hundred times

The tree is green upon the sunny

Nothing the years have done to it Against its strong old-heart the years have battered. The sun of happiness, the rain of tears Have beaten on its boughs for fifty

-kept whole-As if it, too, had an immortal soul!

One's method of dealing with the food question must vary with the child. It will work with some to insist on the food on the plate being eaten before he has dessert. If not hungry enough to eat the food on the plate he is not hungry enough for dessert. A word of praise, a reward, often brings the desired result. As children are people, they should be treated as such. No two individuals enjoy exactly the same things, so we must be taciful in dealing with little people. It is wise to look over the supply shelf often and keep it well filled, for with the holiday season, many unexpected culls may be made upon it.

invented in England in 1829, and first used in the United States in 1831-32, being sold States in 1831-32, being sold in boxes containing 25 matches for 25 cents. They were commonly called loco-focos and were, for a long time, looked upon as an amusing novelty.

Eyes of Scientific World on Student

Many of the others came atrag-ging leads, after months and years atch at heart and disappointed.
Had they stayed at home and attack to their jobs they would have been far happier.
The quest of gold is almost al-ways a gamble.
Few men succeed. Many fall.

Of the greet furtures of which you read, a pitifully small parentage com-prise gold funters.

If you read over a list of the men of great wealth in this country you will discover that very few of them made their fortunes in gold hunting.

The vast majority are men who have had the vision to see the nation's need and what its requirements soon would be, and made ready to supply them.

Such men are worth more to a sation than all the gold hunters who have ever lived.

nation than all the gold hunters who have ever lived.

It is they who have built factories and railroads and steamships—who have developed the resources of the country, and who have helped in the spread of education.

Gold is merely a commodity. You can't eat it, you can't spin the material for your clothes out of it.

If all the geel in this country could by some chemical process or other be turned to gold, the country would soon be in a bad way.

It may admire and love the gold. But it can't get along without steel.

Nor can it get along without steel.

Nor can it get along without steel.

Nor can it get along without steel, bouses or medicines to restore to its proper condition your body when you are ill.

All that gold is valuable for is its price.

Destroy all of it in existence, and the world would soon arrange to get along without it.

If you are eager for riches, find them in some activity which is of real solid intrinsic value to the peo-ple around you.

If you have the right kind of If you have the right kind of wealth, you can buy all the gold you want—for you really want only the trinkets that are made of it, and the value that is set on it by people to whom it, of itself, is of extremely little use.

If you have a job to do, do it. Don't do it with the idea that Forget through it and the Clock start on some-thing else.

Do it as well as you can, and

If you are tremendously interested in some particular job you will devote all your time to it, and never think of quitting.

If you are not tremendously interested in it, it is not worth doing, so forget it and turn to something else.

once heard a managing editor, speaking of three or four men he had dismissed, say:
"I can't have a lot of clock watchers around here.
"A man who keeps his eye on the clock doesn't have his mind on his job.

his job.

"But when they are so interested in what they were doing that they will work a few hours over time, if need be, I know they are the right sort and when I get a chance I move them up to better places."

The attainment of any sort of success is never easy, and has never been easy.

You may forget men of special talents, who rise rapidly without apparent effort.

Figure that you are just an average person, and must make your own way.

Reep your mind on what you are doing all your working hours.

And it won't hurt you any to keep your mind on it out of working hours.

Don't say that it is no matter

Don't say that it is no matter what you do or don't do on your boar's time.

You can't work for any boas without working for yourself.

If he doesn't like your work he can fre you.

But you can't fire yourself, and get a new self to go on with.

In hard times it is the negliged the idle that lose their jobs.

The hard working, earnest employees who devote all they have got to their occupation are the last to be fired.

Suppose you do have to take your work home sometime and work on it.

There isn't a successful man in the world who does not do the same thing.

He wants to do it. He is inter-ted in it. He would rather for at than anything else there is to u are, in a large measure, you

Nothing Finer Priendship is the high of perfection in society.—

Dr. Pietos's Favorite Preser weak women strong. No i by druggists in tablets or Root of Justice Where doth justice dwell?

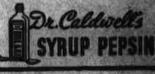

(Use what Doctors do)

Why do the howels usually megularly and thoroughly, long a a physician has given you treatm for constipation?

Because the doctor gives a libitative that can always be take the right amount. You can gradued the secret of real and safe relief pointipation.

the secret of real and safe reliaconstipution.

Ask your doctor about this, your druggist how popular lies laxatives have become. The riliquid laxative gives the right to help, and the right amount of a
When the dose is repeated, instanmore each time, you take less. U the bowels are moving regularly thoroughly without any help at The liquid laxative generally a tabr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepuin contains senna and cascara, these are natural laxatives that no habit—even in children, druggist has it; ask for—

A MOTHER'S ADVIC

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

FEEL TIRED, ACHY. "ALL WORN GET2"

Get Rid of Poisons That Make You Ill

B a constant backache keyou miserable? Do you a uraing, scanty or too free rination; attacks of disa beumatic pains, swollen feet aklast Do you feel tired, ner
-all unstrum?

-all unstrung?

Than give some thought to positionary. Be sure they frush roperly, for functional kidner arrows permits poisons to stay he blood and upset the whole are

This Ought to Sink Him