What I See And Hear

By D. J. BLALOCK

All the alphabetical codes have been tried out. Why not try the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule.

A writer says "Depression teaches us a lesson that can be used to advantage in the future." That reminds me of the man who taught his cow to eat sawdust, but when she got the lesson learned she died.

Women have a chance to show more backbone than men. Notice their present styles of dressing.

Did you ever hear some people talk more religion in five minutes, than they could practice in ten years.

An oculist says green quiets the nerves. We'll agree with him. Those $5, $10 and $20 slips of green back are the most quieting things we know of. They beat any opiate you can take.

When you hear of personal quarrels and national wars, that means somebody wasn't big enough to live up to the Golden Rule.

As we notice the court records it seems that a vast number of people have never been disappointed until after they have married. The divorces will soon be running the marriages a close race.

An old lady was asked which she thought were happier, people who were married or people who were not. "Well, I don't know," she said. "Sometimes I think there is as many that ain't as ain't that is."

It was at a dance, a fight occurred and one fellow was badly beaten. When the aggression was asked why he so rudely beat the attendant, he said: "He insulted my girl." "Why all he said was that she danced like a Zephyr." "My mistake. I thought he said heifer."

Psychologists have ascertained that there are only two perfect minds in every 100. If you know what the population of the State is, think what that would mean. Two out of every hundred with perfect minds floating about. Well, we don't believe it.

We are told that the Canadian government with holds relief to all who own automobiles. In this county those are the poor devils who need help the most. The reason the world is in the doldrums right now is because most of the white folks and all of the negroes were able to keep but one auto instead of two or three. If we had had enough money to spend we would have made this county one continuous chain of gas stations and eating houses and thus kept both the money and the folks perpetual, whirling like a pair of ton cats in a tire fight.

President Roosevelt get $308.30 a day. It seems like liberal day wages but isn't a drop in the bucket compared to the pay of some European rulers. The last Earl of Russia had an average income of about $2,000 daily. The last Sultan of Turkey received $1,000 a day. The Sultan of Morocco $500 a day.
