

Claudette Colbert Stars In "Private Worlds" Feature The Duplin Bill Next Week

Phyllis Bottoms' widely read and engrossing story of a woman who learned to cast aside the dream of love for reality, "Private Worlds," has been filmed by Paramount and comes Monday and Tuesday to the Duplin Theatre, with Claudette Colbert in the starring role.

A psychological love drama revealing the fears and inhibitions that are the true villains of romance, "Private Worlds" is set in the strange and dramatic background of a hospital for the insane.

Its heroine is a woman doctor who clings to the memory of a sweetheart she lost in the war. She has insight into the mental ills of others but does not realize that this strange attachment is threatening her own mind.

Her two professional colleagues are Joel McCrea, whom she likes and respects, and Charles Boyer, a French doctor whom she instinctively dislikes.

The living drama of this little group reaches its climax when McCrea is lured from his wife, Joan Bennett, by the doctor's vampire sister and Miss Bennett becomes critically ill. Then a riot in the hospital endangers all their lives.

Under the desperate stress of emergency Miss Colbert and Boyer forget their differences, work heroically to set things right again and discover in the process that their pretended hatred had really hidden a growing love for each other.

Drama in a theatre that takes place in front of the footlights, instead of behind, is the story told in Paramount's "Four Hours to Kill" starring Richard Barthelmess and coming Wednesday only to the Duplin Theatre.

Barthelmess plays an escaped convict, hiding in the theatre and waiting for his chance to get the man who squealed on him. In the same audience are others whose life dramas are bound with his—a cloakroom boy who has stolen to get money a rich woman planning to run away with her sweetheart, a handsome philanthropist who prays on impressionable women.

While police frantically search for Barthelmess, he makes a telephone call that lures his victim to the lobby of the theatre. Then, just as the separate life dramas of the others are rising to their climaxes, he steps from his hiding place and shoots down the man before the eyes of an aghast audience.

How the criminal is caught and the tangled lives of the others straightened out furnishes the climax to a thrilling drama.

It seems that these college football stars cannot get out of the habit of playing football. Last week we related how Tommy Gresham of Warsaw still plays football with his knee and this week we learn that Bob Lang, the popular manager of the Duplin Theatre in Warsaw, went to Virginia Beach last week end and came home with a skinned and bruised knee. Bob says that he and another football hero on the beach were reminiscing over old times when his friend made a surprise tackle. He didn't say whether or not they had been visiting the ABC stores. Some how the story sounds a little fishy to us.

Friends of Mrs. G. M. Honeycutt and Mr. Rodney Holmes will regret to learn that they have been laid off from their work with the County Health Department due to a shortage of money in that Department.

The other day I was wondering through the court house and judging from questions asked by office holders it seems that early gubernatorial announcements are worrying some of the local officials. They seem anxious to know if anyone is seriously considering trying to take their job next year. Most of the conversations begin with "what about the judges situation, is Grady going to run again and is George Ward and Jim Powers both going to run?" But before the discussion has reached an interesting stage the question pops out "have you heard any talk about any one opposing me?"

What's happened to Henry Stevens? Only a few weeks ago the political gossip in Duplin was centered around our young attorney but it seems to have died out and most frequently heard is "can anyone beat Bailey next time?" What about it Command-er?

Hamp Williams was showing us some of his tobacco a few days ago. If the bundle he displayed represents his entire crop Mr. Williams should be able to drive a new Hudson coupe this fall.

Baby Jane, Screen Starlet, Sends Birthday Cake to Quintuplets

"BABY JANE" QUIGLEY, tiny Universal Pictures "starlet," is seen here holding a birthday cake that the clever little screen player had especially baked in Hollywood for the famous quintuplets in Canada. This cake is her personal gift to the notable Dionne babies on the occasion of their anniversary celebration.

The smiling film "starlet" has just taken the cake intended for the quintuplets from a refrigerator like the one sent from the Electrolux plant at Evanston, Indiana, to the Little Dalos Hospital where it is now used to guard the food supply of the celebrated babies. Another Electrolux refrigerator was used in the remote Canadian northwoods Dionne farmhouse where the quintuplets were born at a time when the perishable human milk with which they were fed hourly needed the protection of up-to-date refrigeration.

"Baby Jane," appearing in "Alias Mary Dow," with Sally Eilers, is also sending to the quintuplets as a birthday present the five "Baby Jane" dolls sitting at the foot of the refrigerator.
