Glad that when our Board of Commissioners sent two telegrams to the State Highway and Public Works Commission asking them to carry out the road program set up in this county, at the same time a delegation representing three communities in our county goes before the board in person, the writer believes that it is a direct slap in the face of the good citizens of the three communities that are appearing before the board. I interpret it to mean that, when Wallace gets every road leading into the town paved, when 111 is paved, when every thing else is done then the people of Magnolia, Rose Hill and Teachey can get what is left.
My opinion is that, if our board of commissioners wanted to do the right thing by every community in the county it would now ask the State Highway and Public Works Commission to give the sections,

When our commissioners ask for paving a road that only serves one section of the county before it gives the other section even an improved road that Board is guilty of committing a gross injustice against the latter community and its actions should be broadcast over the entire county.
The Outlaw's Bridge community hardly has a road better than a hog path over which the school buses must travel with children. I do not wish to take issue with the Rose Hill and Magnolia people, but I believe that they will agree that the Outlaw's Bridge section should get an improved road before any other consideration, then I contend that Rose Hill and Magnolia should get their hard surfaced road and the Wallace and Chiquapin road come last, so far as hard surfacing is concerned.
Fairness to all and partiality to none should be the policy of any office holder.
