LAMP TO CALL DOCTOR of the Sherman from Joctor and a nurse from i the other night. The semisined so inhabita aben ill and needed an in peration. The doctor an hed to the patient in a life

HURBDAT, NOVEMBER 21, 1986

A Law Every Mother Should now and Observe Vever Give Your Child An Unknown Remedy without Asking Your Doctor First

according to ny doctor you ak, the only ale way is to give child a 11 12

ly you don't know all , without asking him first.

When it comes to "milk of lagnesia," that you know every-here, for over 60 years, doctors ave said "PHILLIPS' Milk of fagnesia for your child."

So-always say Phillips' when you buy. And, for your own peace of mind, see that your child gets this; the finest men

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Cuticura Cares For Your Skin The medicinal and soothing properties of the Seam not only thoroughly cleanse the skin, but are most beneficial and helpful to it. If you are troubled with itching of pim-ples or other skin eruption the Distinguishing end the ap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c.

Defective Hearing

Authorities estimate 17,000,000 per in the United States are "hard of hearing" in some degree and that about 45,000 are classed as deaf.

What SHE TOLD MORN-OUT HUSBAND

r an old t accellent eating, but you must know which you have, for it makes a difference in the way you cook it. Allow from one-half to three-quar-ters of a pound in the weight of the turkey as you buy it for each person to be served—remembering that in the larger kinds you will get more meat in that proportion to bone. With a 15-pound turkey, for instance, you can set 20 very for instance, you can get 20 very generous servings. The dealer will usually draw the turkey for you, but certain things have to be looked out for at home. Cut off the oil sac, take out the windpipe and lungs, pull out any pin feathers and singe off hairs. Do this quickly so as not to darken or seorch the skin. Wipe the body cavity with a soft cloth wrung out of cold water. Scrub the outside with a wet cloth and soda or corn meal. Rinse off quickly and wipe the bird dry inside and outside. Nevert let a turkey or any other poultry soak in water. You lose wor and food value. Rub the inside with salt before west putting in the stuffing. Slip a crusty end slice of a loaf of bread into Her opening near the tail to hold in the stuffing, tuck the legs under the band of skin left for that purpo

Moroccan Chieftain at His "Front Door."

In Morocco

Prepared by National Geographic Society. Washington, D. C.-WNU Service. OROCCO, tong an empire guarded from the coveting eyes of Europe by the will of a proud and exclusive people remains in her subjection a land tempting to the traveler in search of new and even rude experiences. She is a country up-to-date, accessible, civilized; yet barbarous antique, and forbidden. She is French, Spanish, Berber, Arab, and Jew. She has been nursed for a thousand years on the subtle policles of the Orient, though farther west than the greater part of Eu

Her emperors, some of whom were lords and masters of Spain, built great cities and castles and nalaces and fortresses, before se, and sew up the slit with America had come out of the Land white twine. After stuffing of Dreams. They endowed univerand trussing the turkey, rub the sities and colleges for the cultivaoutside all over with butter, salt tion of learning, the terms of whose foundations resemble those at Ox ford and Cambridge; with some of which they were contemporary, The same cloistered beauty is to be found in both: the same lofty ideals of faith and devotion. They assembled in their prime, great armies for the conquest of the world, and fleets that swept the Christian seas. Though children born of the desert, they arrogated to themselves great pretensions; claiming the Divine Right, not mere ly as kings but as saints by lineage

Their tombs, where ruin has spared them, remain as lovely as any in the world; their gardens of running waters are still a delight to those permitted to enter them. And yet, half the population of this country lives on in the ways of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,

Orient and Occident Mingle. She is an eastern land in the marrow of her bones, though placed in Africa; and she has been penetrated through centuries by Euro nean influences, which lie deep under the surface of her oriental life plece of turkey fat over the breast Place on a rack in an open roasting pan. Do not put any water into the pan. Water in a roasting pan makes steam, and steam around a roasting turkey or any tender meat draws out the julces. Have the oven hot (about 450*

F.) when you put the turkey in. Brown it lightly for half an hour in this hot oven and after the first years.

of the desert, wounded in battle, can find himself carried through the air to a French hospital across the whole width of impenetrable Atlas. Twenty centuries have here been compressed into as many men opportunities of advancement and adventure, beyond that borden land known as the Zone of Securi One can imagine the attrac ty. tion of such a life for a man grown tired of his boulevards and the charms of an overripe civilization: but it is closely sealed. It is not very difficult to have your throat cut if you cross that line. The rekkas, or secret messengers of France, faithful to their salt, frequently, endure that fate Nameless, unknown, they perish. leaving no ripple behind them.

TER DUPLIE TIMES,

But the sands of this colored and attractive life are running out, and short of another European war or some violent uprising in Asia, the triumph of France seems assured. None the less, these last pages of her story remain romantic enough; telling a tale of policy and arms. fanaticism and pride; of resistance. surrender, and swift revolt, that await a scribe.

But France in Morocco has no produced her Kipling. One doubts if she ever will. One great traveler she has produced, the Vicomte de Foucauld; and one administrator of genius, the Marechal Lyautey. grown white-haired and old in the service of France.

Those Who Serve France.

All kinds of people have taken a hand in this adventure; crafty and ambitious chieftains and fighting prophets; smooth diplomatists and hard-hitting commanders of the Foreign Legion; Christians, Infidels and Jews; generals as lean as their swords-trempes, as they say-tem pered, by a life in the Sahara friends in their youth of De Fou cauld and Laperrine; realists yet mystics like the people of the deser themselves, and quite the best kind of man you can hope to meet in northern Africa; meharists of the camel corps who swagger about in their vast white pantaloons; flight commanders who cross the Atlas, dropping bombs upon the gathering tribes, and making new maps from Her camel caravans remain coeval the air: royal princes with an urge with the airplane; and a tribesman for adventure; drummers and army contractors out for pelf; ladles of high rank and great virtue, and 'a dies of many charms who possess neither; innkeepers and cantinlers: French children who become the attached companions of retired die hards: drivers of armored cars and lorries sprung from half the nations of Europe, with weird personmountains almost as stately as the Rockies or the Alps; valleys proal histories, and a knack of extrifound and lovely; cedars as noble cating themselves from every adas those of Lebanon; olive groves venture, or dying game; literary like those of Delphi; vines that gentlemen whose home is in Paris grow wild, or are as cultivated now and whose public resides in France as those of Provence; cities like missions-scientifiques; hydrologists Fes which belong to the Arablan deputies of the French Republic. Nights, and Marrakech the Granashepherded in flights; newspaper da of Morocco, which glows in her men, unwelcomes; marshals of fierce sunlight girdled by palm France, with famous names: the oases, within a day's march of resident general of Morocco himsnow-covered summits, "white as self, carefully guarded and sursalmon" as Drake observed them rounded with pomp and ceremonial in the course of his circumnaviga observance; and something like 30. tion of the world; cities and peo 000 legionnaires (mostly Germans) ples passionate with the fury and who, having no country of their excess of Africa, yet profoundly in own, fight for that strange thingspired by the worship of the One the Honor of the Legion-and do God, their compassionate and merthe work of France for a few cents a day; Ishmaelites all. For these and other reasons this Berbers in Opposition. country grips one, though the world be at one's disposal. Each year Upon the other side, and almost as quixotic, is their friend the Disthe pacified frontier of this violent sident, who provides the occasion and the battle ground for all this and noetic land marches on into regions unknown. Each year one finds adventure; a queer chap, with an some new tract becomes accessible odd love of freedom and of his naold castles unsuspected, and chieftive hills, a bit of a troubadour; somewhat of a patriot and fighter for the Falth; gallant, truculent, treacherous, and cruel; but always very much of a man, with a keen sense of humor ailled with a strict attention to business, Awhile ago he raised a laugh throughout Morocco by stealing two carefree gen-tlemen of the resident general's household with their respective ladles; and returning them, a little damaged, in exchange for five million francs "and a gramophone of the very latest design, with all re-The Berbars, to whose category he belongs, have always been "agin" whatever government there has been in the land; willing, as gentle men, to follow any great leader to plunder and war; unwilling to follow anyone for long; the real nucleus of the Moslem armies who nquered Spain, and near of kin those who marched across the Alps with Hannibal to the walls of Rome. The name of Hannihal is

KENANSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

shoes had not been paid for, and he was tired of seeing his clients going about in comfort while he was on the Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tab-lets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and de-pendable of all intestinal eliminants thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxines.

"Better baking at a saving-that counts in this family!" SAYS MRS. W. W. HICKEY, OF CHICAGO, ILL. "I'm paying the lowest prices ever for Calumet Baking Powder!"

"CAKES AND COOKIES just disappear in my big fam-ily," laughs Mrs. Hickey. Soit's a big help when I can get a full-pound can of my reliable, standby baking der, Calumet, for only 25cl As long as I bake, Calu met will be in my pantry !" Grandfather Rommel; who was a baker for 40 years; says, "Calumet takes the work out of the job nowadays."

"OH WAD THE POWERS-"

⁴An elegant young woman strolled lown the main street of Skopje. Yugoslavia, attracting admiring glances from all she passed. Sudden-ly a man dashed out of a shop, lifted her off her feet, took off her shoes and set her down again to walk home in her stocking feet. The assailant, shoemaker, explained that the verge of bankruptcy.

LOOK AT THE NEW CALUMET CAN A simple twist ... and the Easy-Opening Top lifts aff. No delay, no spilling, no

WHAT makes Calumet so dependable? Why is it different from other baking powders? Calumet combines two distinct leavening actions. A quick action for the mixing bowl-met free by liquid. A slower action for the over-met free by heat. This Double-Action produces perfect leavening.

New! Big 10[¢] Can!

Calumet is now selling at the lowest prices in its history... The regular price of the Full-Pound Can is now only 25c! And ask to see the new 10c can-a lot of good baking for a dime-with Calumet, the Double-Acting Baking Powder. A product of General Foods.

1 2 1 A 1 1 A

895

old

Testing the Doneness of the Bird

for the Great Feast.

 \overline{a} of a 25e box

AHE SPARE TIME MOREY and the second share

ULD POINT COMFORT V

ABERLIN Hefel A fine new hotel in a

THE REVERATED BOOKLET

INTA REACH W

15 minutes turn the bird with the breast down so it will brown all over. Then reduce the oven heat to very moderate (325° F.).

If the turkey is young, continue the roasting at this moderate temperature with no lid on the pan un til the bird is done. Baste with pan drippings every half hour. For a turkey a year or more old after browning in the hot oven, put he cover on the roaster, and con tinue the cooking in the moderate even (about 325° F.). You will hly need to allow 41 hours pro or a 15-pound bird a year or more

To test the "doneness" run a steel skewer or a cooking fork into the thigh next to the breast. If the juice does not show a red tinge, ciful Allah! the turkey is done. Make gravy with the giblets and drippings. The bureau of home economics

United States Department of Agri culture, which gives the foregoing suggestions, also supplies this red ipe for a savory stuffing, and one for giblet gravy. For stuffing: 2 quorts dry brend 1 plat chopped celery transla Si cup int, hutter 3 tap, salt aud turkey int 1 to 3 tap, salt 1 to 3 ta

In the melted fat cook the onlon, parsley and celery for a few minutes. Add the bread crumbs and seasonings and atlr all together until the mixture is thoroughly heated. Pile the hot stuffing light ly into the turkey, but do not pack Giblet gravy: Simmer the giblets (liver, gizzard and heart) and the in one quart of water for at an hour. Drain the giblets chop them fine, saving the coop them and, saving the if there is too much fat on rippings in the roaster, skim me of the excess fat and leave one-half cup. Into these pan-ings shir six level tablespoons our. Then gradually add the tains living in them in medieval state; clans and tribesmen at war, now gathered into the fold; maps that record a twelve-months' progress, with all sorts of lines and spots and frontiers marked on them, each with its fascinating tale of valor or industry to tell. The history of Morocco is one of violent unrest and order in continual balance. Rebels Still Exist. Since the magnificent failure of Abdel-Krim, who all but broke the power of Spain in Africa and went near to reconquering Morocco from the French, the tricolor now blows beside the flag of the sultan over nearly all of French Morocco; but not quite. There are regions in Great Atlas where die-hards still maintain their freedom, deilvering shrewd blows at their conquerer on the giblets and from time to time; and, in the des-ert spaces of Saraha, horsemen and cameleers who ride acknowledging bid water to make a

It in