Miss Josephine Garrett is spending the Christmas holidays in Norfolk, Va.

Miss Opal Gillikin, who is in training at the Lumberton hospital, spent the past week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gillikin.

Miss Willie Adams of Angier has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Williams.

Mrs. C. C. Lolk of Hagerstown, Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stanley.

The December meeting of the Kenansville Woman's Club was held on last Thursday afternoon at 3:00 in the Club rooms. This was held one week earlier than usual in order not to conflict with the Christmas festivities. The president, Miss Lois Mason, presided over the meeting. After the Club Hymn and Collect, several Christmas Carols were sung as the members gathered in a semi-circle around the piano. During the business session several donations were made to Mrs. Norwood Bonny, for the T. B. Seals. Others wishing to contribute to this worthy cause are urged to do so by January 1st.

Christmas Tree

The Methodist Sunday School Christmas service was held Friday evening at 7:30. Carol singing and a special program by the members of the Sunday school was enjoyed by all. A special surprise of the evening was the reading of "The Other Wise Man" by Mrs. F. P. Thompson, which was done in a very commendable way. Old Santa arrived in with bells that he rang at the door but finally got over the sad tidings that presents Christmas bags for the children and special gifts from C. M. Quinn for the home of the community.

... to everybody! There's a lot of peoples we know but we're feeling pretty good this morning ... and we don't want to leave anybody out! So we'll say it again, GREETINGS! on this very merry Christmas.

LISTEN!

Hear those Christmas bells? We were seriously thinking of shouting "Merry Christmas" beneath your window this morning, but the bells would drown us out . . . so we'll have to say it in print, where you'll see it! Here it is . . . MERRY CHRISTMAS!
