Veach-Winstead

Miss Reba Winstead of Hallsville and Ralph Veach also of Hallsville were quietly married in Clinton Christmas day. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Spencer Winstead of Hallsville and has been making her home with her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Miller. She was educated in the Beulaville school and is very active in the community life. The groom came to this section of the county a few years ago and opened business at Hallsville. He has been successful in business and has had to enlarge his store to take care of the increased trade. The young couple will make their home in Hallsville where Mr. Veach will continue in business.

Young Couple Honored At Shower

Hallsville, N. C. — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Veach, were the guests of honor at a shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sumner on last Thursday evening. The young couple was invited to the home for a social visit, but when they arrived they found the house full of friends to welcome them. Games were played, by those present.

The bride was led to the dining room where she found a large box filled with useful gifts. She and her husband opened the gifts and presented them to the friends for inspection. Practically all of the gifts were useful and there were very few duplicates.

On Friday evening the young couple were invited to the home of the groom and were given another shower of useful presents. It was strange but true that in these two showers, there were very few gifts that were duplicates, and all the gifts were such that they were useful in the home for the new housekeeper.

The Times joins with the friends in wishing them all happiness in their new home.

New Year's Party

Last Thursday evening the young girls of Kenansville entertained the boys of Kenansville with a New Years Eve party. Hot tea and cookies were served as refreshments. The group attended the mid-night show in Warsaw afterwards.
