

MEETING HELD FOR PURPOSE OF ORGANIZING GIRL SCOUT TROOP IN ROSE HILL

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MISS LOUISE WHITFIELD AND MISS MILDRED STANLEY

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Girl Scout Troop in Rose Hill was held in the Rose Hill School Auditorium on Thursday afternoon, January 14, 1937, at four o'clock under the direction of Miss Louise Whitfield as Captain and Miss Mildred Stanley as First Lieutenant.

The program conducted by the Captain and Lieutenant, was devoted to the discussion of what it means to become a Girl Scout and the qualifications for becoming a Tenderfoot.

The name Pocahontas was adopted for the local troop. Patrols will be formed as soon as the girls meet the Tenderfoot requirements. Then each patrol will have a leader and a name.

A great deal of interest is being manifested by the girls and it is hoped that in the near future Rose Hill will have a large and active troop.

The next meeting of the Pocahontas Troop will be held on Thursday afternoon, January 21, at four o'clock in the school auditorium.

Quilting Party

Mrs. J. W. Blanchard gave an all day quilting party at her home on Thursday, January 14. Those present were: Mesdames Hallie Rouse, Irkson Rouse, C. F. Blanchard, Healy Garr, Roy Southerland, Myrtle Harrell and Eva Rouse.

ROSE HILL HAPPENINGS

Miss Mildred Stanley spent the week end in Goldsboro.

Miss Mamie Lee Kimball, of Wilmington, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fussell.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vick spent the week end in Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Robinson had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rivenbark, of Wilmington, and Mrs. George Rivenbark, of Willard.

Miss Estelle Harrell, of Raleigh, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harrell.

Bruce Teachey, Jr., student at Louisburg College, Louisburg, is at home for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wells, of Kenansville, were the guests of Mrs. Rachel Southerland Sunday.

E. P. Blanchard spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Herring spent Friday in Wilmington.

Miss Lucille Teachey, of Wilmington, spent the week end at her home.

Mrs. Sarah Reid, Mrs. Laurie Harrell, Mrs. F. S. Newton, Mrs. Mary E. Lancaster and Miss Bessie Lancaster visited in Faison Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Baron, of Scotland Neck, visited in town Sunday.

Miss Jimmy Alderman visited in Turkey Monday.

Dr. E. L. Carr, Dr. C. F. Hawes, and Mrs. Jesse Fussell made a business trip to Clinton last week.

Miss Martha B. Tolbert spent the week end in Stanstonsburg.

Music Club Entertained in Home of Mrs. Hall

The Rose Hill Music Club met with Mrs. W. H. Hall on Tuesday evening the 12th of January. Miss Betty Fussell assisted Mrs. Hall in entertaining.

After a business session, the program on the opera, "Tanhauser", by Richard Wagner was given under the direction of Miss Irene Wells. Mrs. E. G. Murray told the story of the opera, "Evening Star", a vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. W. H. Hall. Mrs. L. K. Alderman played the accompaniment. Mrs. Alderman also gave an instrumental piece, "Grand March." These musical numbers were selections taken from the opera. The hostesses served tempting refreshments during the social hour.

CHOCOLATE HAPPENINGS

Mrs. R. G. Maxwell had a relapse recently, but is able to visit again. We hope she continues to improve and that she will enjoy good health this new year.

Mr. Franklin Grady of N. Y. C. and Mr. Malcom Grady visited old friends in Chocolate Monday. They also went out to the old Suttons Branch, commonly called "The University of Chocolate" and down to "Maxwell's Mill" and fished for perch awhile. Its lots of fun.

Mrs. H. D. Maxwell and Hugh and Ruby Maxwell made a business trip to Kinston Monday.

Miss Lucille Southerland, visited Miss Victoria Gooding Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Richardson of Stanhope, Mr. Rommie Holt of Rocky Mount, Miss Hazel Dawson of Kinston, Misses Owens and Jusely and Mr. Buster Suiter, all visited Mrs. Mabel Holt during the week end.

Mrs. Blanchard Southerland is slowly improving from her illness caused by severe burns received Christmas. She is able to sit up some now. Dr. Gooding is still attending her.

We have some new neighbors moving into Rose Hill. Welcome to them. Come over to Rose Hill to Sunday school.

Mrs. Irene Smith and Mrs. Tom Smith visited Mrs. Mabel Holt and Mrs. Fanny Smith one afternoon recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams, Hattie and Betty Gray visited at Mr. W. R. Gooding Sunday.

Mr. Hugh Maxwell, Jr., has recently returned home from Chicago, Ill. where he has been working for some time. He reports good weather there. It seems good to see our boys back home in old Chocolate, welcome.

Mr. Jimmie Grady and family of Sarecta visited at Mr. W. R. Gooding one day recently.

Mr. Smith Turner is remodeling his home. It will be very attractive. It was formerly owned by J. P. Turner.

Mrs. Minnie Allen is able to attend to her duties again after an attack of rheumatism.

Misses Jennie Maxwell and Louise Johnson were at "Maxwell's Mill" recently. Maurice Maxwell writes that its plenty cold in Lynn, Mass.

Dedication Of New School Building For Colored Children in Rose Hill

On Wednesday morning, January 13, the dedication of the new school building for colored children took place in the auditorium of this building.

Prof. Crowder, the principal of the school, was in charge of the exercises. The speakers were Mr. Harvey Henry of Rose Hill, Mr. O. P. Johnson of Kenansville and Rev. Malcolm Newkirk, pastor of the church. In his address, he urged the building of the school and the welfare of the colored children of the community. He said that the building was a very fine example of all in building part of the building.

The new school house was burned about one year ago and the teachers, who have worked under very hard conditions, had to do as well as an element of the community are very proud of the new building.

Presbyterian Circle Meetings

The three circles of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met on Wednesday afternoon, January 13. The subject of the program for these meetings was "Who's a Heathen?" The Bible study topic was "God in Everyday Life."

Mrs. R. L. Carr entertained the members of Circle I at 3:00 o'clock. A talk on the program subject, "Who's a Heathen?" was given by Rev. S. G. Harness. Mrs. Lucie

Alderman conducted the Bible study. There were eleven members present.

Circle No. II met with Mrs. A. B. Wells. The program discussion was led by Mrs. J. B. Fussell. Mrs. Lulu Herring directed the Bible study at this meeting.

Miss Biella Carr was hostess to the Girl's Circle in the home of Miss Jessie Moore at 5:00 o'clock. Miss Annie Louise Herring led the Bible study and Miss Evelyn Teachey had charge of the program.

At the close of the program each hostess served refreshments.

SNAPSHOTS

Four Paramount Beauties find relaxation at Southern California beaches—Who couldn't?

They laughed when Ed Wynn sat down at the piano—They didn't know that the master comic is an expert at tickling the ivories. Graham McNamee watches the Perfect Fool as he plays a solo on a recent Saturday night program over the NBC-Blue network.

HONOR HIGHWAY HERO!—Edward N. Hines, of Detroit, whose invention of the white center line for highways has saved thousands of lives by preventing head-on collisions, and other crashes, receives plaque commemorating achievement from President J. D. Tew, of The B. F. Goodrich Company, at annual meeting of American Automobile Association.

In an effort to bring a speedy end to the labor troubles in the G. M. automobile plant these leaders met to discuss the situation. Left to right—James F. Dewey, Federal Commissioner; Frank Marshall and James Martin, labor leaders; Gov. Murphy of Michigan and John Murphy, director of the C. I. O. (Above) Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., President of General Motors Corporation, saw in the spotlight the success of his plant system. The success of the World's Largest Automobile Plant.

(Above) Edward N. Hines, inventor of the white center line for highways, was honored at the annual meeting of the American Automobile Association. He is shown here with President J. D. Tew of the B. F. Goodrich Company.

ENJOYS CAMELS THE WHOLE DAY THROUGH

WORLD'S CHAMPION SPEED SKATER, Kit Klein, says: "I like to enjoy Camels the whole day through. I rely on Camels for digestion's sake—enjoy them while I'm eating and afterwards!"

TED HUSING, ace sports announcer, says: "Mine's a hectic life—but my digestion keeps running smoothly. I enjoy Camels with my meals and after." Camels are mild—best for steady smoking.