

COMEDIES IN DUPLIN

The pulsating romance of a man and woman from two warring worlds who risked their lives for love amid intrigue and bloodshed provides the theme of "Beloved Enemy," Samuel Goldwyn's thrilling new screen drama which stars Marie Oberon and Brian Aherne at the Wanooca Theatre Monday. The story is from the pens of John Belderson, Ross Franken-and William Brown Meloney with additional dialogue by David Hertz.

Marie Oberon has her greatest role to date as Lady Helen Drummond, the lovely English girl who accompanies her father Lord Athleigh, an emissary of Parliament.

Aherne is seen as Dennis Bordan, the daring, dashing young Irishman who is the secret leader of the revolt and whom all the strategy of the British has failed to trap.

The two fall madly in love and the story depicts how the girl is torn between her duty to her country and her devotion to this handsome, hunted fellow and how she risks her life to intercede for the man she loves and the cause she is sworn to oppose.

An imposing cast, featuring Karen Morley, Henry Stephenson, Jerome Cowan, noted Broadway stage star who scored in "Boy Meets Girl," and David Niven, Miss Oberon's offscreen heart interest, supports the stars. Others prominent in the cast are Donald Crisp, Ra Hould, sensational new child actor, Pat O'Malley, Jack Mulhall, Wyndham Standing, David Torrence and Theodore Von Eltz.

"Smart Blonde," a mystery-comedy drama from the Warner Bros. studios, which has its first local showing Tuesday at the Wanooca Theatre will, it is promised, put on view for public approval a brand-new character — Torchy Blane, girl newspaper reporter.

The vivacious Glenda Farrell portrays Torchy and with the aid of Barton MacLane as a police detective, solves a murder mystery which confronts her at the very beginning of the picture.

"Smart Blonde" is the first of a series of comedy-dramas in which the dashing Torchy Blane will be the central figure, portrayed, of course, by Miss Farrell.

With Miss Farrell and MacLane in "Smart Blonde" are many other noted players, including Winifred Shaw, Craig Reynolds Addison Richards, Jane Wyman, Charlotte Winters, David Carlyle and Joseph Crehan.

The difficult task of learning some five hundred Chinese words for her latest Twentieth Century-Fox triumph, "Stowaway," coming Thursday to the Wanooca Theatre, proved loads of fun, rather than tedious work to Shirley Temple.

When the picture was completed, Shirley, with the help of her Chinese teacher, carried on a conversation in Chinese with a six-year-old youngster from Peiping, China.

After a few warm-up questions, Shirley asked the boy if he knew any English words.

The boy raised one finger, hesitated a moment, then blurted out, in sing-song manner: "We-a want-a Cantor."

Robert Young and Alice Faye play the romantic leads in "Stowaway," and the rest of Shirley's featured cast includes Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley, Arthur Treacher, J. Edward Bromberg and Astrid Allwyn.

On the very day, almost at the same hour, that Judge Joseph A. Moynahan of Detroit passed sentence in the Black Legion case, the exact thing was being enacted on a Hollywood stage, with Samuel Hinds, character actor, as the Judge.

The film version of "Black Legion," showing for the Saturday night Owl Show, January 30 at the Wanooca Theatre, is a Warner Bros. production based on the activities of the society of that name, and the big trail scenes are the climax of the story, with Humphrey Bogart as the guilty night rider.

The coincidence of time is heightened by the fact the words of the screen judge in passing sentence were almost identical with those used in Judge Moynahan's indignant castigation.

"Black Legion" is a daring and thrilling melodrama based upon the actual operations of the secret hooded, night-riding order which terrorized Michigan recently.

The cast includes, besides Bogart, Dick Foran, Ann Sheridan, Erin O'Brien-Moore, Helen Flint, Joseph Sawyer, Dickie Jones and others.
