

KENANSVILLE HAPPENINGS

Mrs. J. E. Jerritt spent last Monday in Raleigh with her daughter, Caroline, who attends Peace College.

Mrs. C. E. Quinn and Joe spent a couple of days in Raleigh last week with Duplin County's Representative, C. E. Quinn.

Mrs. F. L. Goodman and baby, Caroline Virginia, plan to spend next week in Jacksonville with the Waltons while Rev. Goodman attends the Sprunt Lectures in Richmond, Va.

Miss Martha Pickett of Raleigh spent last week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pickett.

Mrs. B. C. Siske of Pleasant Garden, near Greensboro, spent several days here this week with Mrs. J. L. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Eskridge of Raleigh spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Grady.

Miss Betty Jenkins spent the week end in Wallace and Wilmington with relatives.

Mrs. F. W. McGowen had the misfortune to step on a nail last Saturday and had to take the lock-jaw treatment. We hope she'll soon be on both feet again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wells were called to Turkey last Saturday night due to the sickness of Mrs. Wells' brother, Mr. Lewis Carroll, who has a severe attack of Flu-Pneumonia. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Bernice Farrior and Roy Sitterson have been confined to their rooms recently with the mumps. They needn't mind staying in a few days though, during this extremely wet spell.

Mrs. L. A. Beasley was a most gracious hostess when she entertained the Thursday Afternoon Card Club last week in her attractive home here. Visitors present, other than the club members were Mesdames C. B. Penney, J. E. Jusely and C. C. Loth. At the conclusion of the games the hostess awarded the following prizes: A jar of candy to Mrs. C. B. Guthrie for taking the most tricks with the two spot; a bottle of perfume to Mrs. J. E. Jusely from Charleston, S. C., who has been visiting relatives here, and a lovely linen handkerchief to each of her club members as a New Year gift.

Mrs. Beasley was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Loth of Waynesboro, Va., in serving tempting refreshments consisting of ham, biscuits, olives, openface sandwiches, stuffed dates and an assortment of cake accompanied by coffee. Mints were also passed.

THE AUXILIARY MEETS

"A Family Affair" was the attractive topic of the January Auxiliary program held on Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the Manse. It was in charge of Mrs. N. B. Hone, Secretary of Foreign Missions for the local Auxiliary. She was assisted by Mrs. G. V. Gooding, Mrs. J. E. Jerritt, Mrs. Lawrence Southerland and Miss Lula Hinson, who brought a last message from Dr. George C. Worth who passed away at his post of duty in Kianwyin Hospital in China. Messages were heard from each of his three children, namely, William C. Worth who is an Agriculturist in Mutoto, Africa, Charles Worth an Evangelist in Hangchow, China, and Miss Ruth Worth who is Technician in Kiangyin Hospital, China. A solo was rendered by Mrs. Moses Farmer. The Devotional for the afternoon was lead by Mrs. F. L. Goodman, and the business session was presided over by the President, Mrs. John A. Gavin.

MRS. JOHNSTON HOSTESS

Mrs. O. P. Johnson was hostess to the B.M.G. Sewing Club on Tuesday afternoon of this week from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock. There were only 8 members present, several being absent due to illness. After the usual sewing bee the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served a chicken salad course with accessories. Rooms for the occasion were made attractive with a glowing open fire.

Misses Ina Newton and Carrie Boone of James Walker Memorial Hospital, Wilmington, where they are in training, spent Sunday P. M. here with relatives.

Mrs. Charlie Williamson has been visiting relatives in Raeford. Carr Newton has returned from Miami Beach, Fla., where he worked for several months.

Elwood Dobson is very sick at this writing with Flu-Pneumonia. His sister, Mrs. J. M. Vines of Wilmington was here to see him Tuesday.

Pink Hill News

Miss Mildred Horton of Greenville spent the week end with Miss Jesse Wetherington at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Turner.

Misses Elizabeth Rogers and Frances Shankle were week end guests of Miss Rogers mother at Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor of Raleigh spent Sunday here. They were accompanied back to Raleigh by Mr. Aubrey Turner, a student at Kings Business College.

Messrs. J. J. Smith and Isaac Stroud were Wilmington Business visitors Friday.

Mrs. L. C. Turner and Mrs. Roland Smith were visitors of relatives and friends at Beulaville Friday.

Messrs. T. A. and L. C. Turner were at Raleigh on a recent day to attend a meeting concerning the Tobacco Compact Legislation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kornegay and family of Warsaw were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heath Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. K. Davis and Mr. Rudolph Davis visited Mrs. Thomas Heath, who is ill at her home near Kinston recently.

Miss Lora Benge of Moss Hill on duty as a nurse at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones for the past two weeks returned home Friday.

A womanlike wedding, sponsored by the P.T.A. to be held in the High School auditorium here Wednesday evening, January 27, is expected to be well attended.

Several Pastors Leaving For Sprunt Lectures

Several of the pastors of Presbyterian Churches in the county will leave Monday for Richmond to attend the Sprunt Lectures which are being held at the Union Theological Seminary during that week.

Duplin Roads In Fair Shape

The recent rains have made the clay roads rather bad for travel but sand roads are in very good shape. The road leading from the county capital across Goshen Swamp are in right bad shape and very rough. Many of the roads were dragged last week and helped to smooth out the places.
