CARD CLUB MEETS

Mrs. P. J. Dobson was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Card Club last week. Mrs. C. B. Penny was an additional guest. The Valentine motif was carried out in the tallie and decorations and also later in the table appointments for refreshments. Mrs. John A. Gavin was awarded an attractive prize for bidding game in one hand and making it. Mrs. G. R. Dail was given an individual tea pot for taking the most tricks with the two spot. Mrs. J. E. Jerritt assisted the hostess in serving a congealed salad course with coffee. Each guest found a dainty Valentine standing on her plate as a favor.

Forestry Notes

Ralph Miller, County Warden, sends out a warning for all citizens of the county to be careful with fire. With dry weather and more wind, the danger from fire is increasing each day.

Heavy Snow Storm At Pink Hill

Snow reached the storm stage in this section last Thursday evening when falling snow became so dense that travel was almost impossible for about one half hour. The heaviest snow fall seemed to be in the B. F. Grady school section, with only light snow in other parts of the county to the south. The heaviest snow fall between here and Richmond fell around Goldsboro. The snow fall there was sufficient to require the roads to be cleaned. About one half of snow fall in Richmond, Virginia.

Ministers Attend Sprunt Lectures

Several of the Presbyterian Ministers from Wilmington Presbytery attended the Sprunt lectures held in Richmond, Va., last week. These lectures are made possible at the Seminary through the special endowment given by the Sprunts of Wilmington about 25 years ago. This year the Sprunt lectures were given by Dr. H. H. Horne of New York on The Phil-

"Nation's Fair" Their Objective

Mrs. Vincent Astor
Winthrop W. Aldrich

NEW YORK (Special)—Mrs. Vincent Astor, society leader and civic worker, has been appointed Chairman of a National Women's Advisory Committee for the New York World's Fair of 1939. Winthrop W. Aldrich, Chairman of the Chase National Bank, is heading the men's National Committee. Together they will enlist more than 10,000 committee workers in a nationwide campaign to arouse interest in and create support for the New York Fair. Grover Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation has announced that State Chairmen will be named later and that every state will be brought into active participation in the New York Fair, making it truly national.

osophy of Christian Education, Dr. H. T. Kerr of Pittsburg on Christian Conceptions and by Dr. F. C. Morgan on The Vision of Isaiah. The series was said by many to be the best combination of speakers ever to come to the Seminary for the special lecture week.

Those attending from Wilmington Presbytery were, Rev. C. H. Storey D. D., Rev. W. H. Whitmore, D. D., and Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour from Wilmington, Rev. B. F. Hall, Morehead City; Rev. James R. Phipps, Pollockville; Rev. J. I. Knight, Mount Olive; Rev. F. L. Goodman, Kenansville, Rev. S. G. Harness, Rose Hill, Rev. W. P. M. Currie, Wallace, Rev. R. M. Engle from Lake Waccamaw and Rev. M. O. Sommers, Clinton.

Ladies attending the lectures from this section included Miss Jane Hall and Miss Sue Hall of Wilmington, and Mrs. A. D. P. Gilmour of Wilmington.

Vacation Church Schools

Rev. F. L. Goodman, Chairman of the Children's division of the presbytery committee on Religious Education announces that a special effort will be made this year to hold Vacation Church schools in every church in the Presbytery. We hope that all ministers and church officers will begin now to make plans for a school in the early summer. Ministers are urged to use local workers in these schools whenever possible, and we feel sure that many of our Presbyterian school teachers will be glad to help with the church schools if the community will take care of their traveling expenses, board and room.

Ministers Exchange Pulpits

During the month of February, every Presbyterian Church in the Presbytery will hear a new voice from the pulpit. Rev. J. I. Knight, chairman of Stewardship Committee announces that arrangements are complete for the exchange of pulpits for the presbyteries of the Stewardship Program. Arrangements of these services will be made through this paper as soon as available.

When You Need a Laxative

Thousands of men and women know how wise it is to take Black-Draught at the first sign of constipation. They like the refreshing relief it brings. They know its timely use may save them from feeling badly and possibly losing time at work from sickness brought on by constipation.

If you have to take a laxative occasionally, you can rely on
