

Music Department Of Woman's Club Presents Program On Church Music

"Church Music" was the subject of the program given at a recent Woman's Club meeting under the direction of the Music Department Committee. The opening number, "Largo" by Handel was played by Miss Betty Fussell. Theology was sung by the club. "The Origin Art, The Story of Sacred Music" was told by Mrs. L. A. Wilson. Mrs. H. C. Marshall spoke on "The Beginning of Church Music in America." A vocal quartet, "The Lord is My Shepard" was rendered by Mesdames W. S. Wells, E. G. Murray, Elmo Teachey and H. W. Farrior. Mrs. J. M. Jerome discussed "Latter Century, and Present Day Church Music." "Morning Invocation", a vocal trio was given by Mesdames W. H. Hall, L. A. Wilson and L. E. Alderman. "Lowell Mason's Contribution to Church Music" was outlined by Mrs. Alderman, and Miss Yvonne Alderman played "Nearer My God To Thee," with variations. The program concluded with "The Lord's Prayer" softly sung, by Mesdames Wells, Murray, Teachey and Farrior.

Mrs. H. C. Marshall, assisted by Mesdames E. L. Lanier and T. R. House entertained the meeting. A congenial salad course with coffee was served at the close of the program.

Guests other than club members were Mesdames C. T. Fussell, Charlie Teachey, Jr., Elmo Teachey, E. T. Koonce, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Maness and Miss Yvonne Alderman.

Baptist W. M. S. Studies Home Mission Book

The Baptist W. M. S. held a Mission Study Class three afternoons last week in the home of the president, Mrs. E. G. Murray. The book "Follow Me" by Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence of the Home Mission Board in Atlanta, Ga., presents the challenge of unoccupied fields of the Southland. Miss Bessie Johnson, chairman of the Mission Study is local W. M. S., assisted by Mrs. L. J. Teachey and Miss Ruth Murray taught the class. Special music was furnished by Miss Irene Wells, Mesdames W. S. Wells, Elmo Teachey, W. I. Rouse and L. J. Teachey. The class had an average attendance of twelve members.

Rosa Hocutt Circle Meeting

Mesdames Graham Fussell and Kirkue Lockerman entertained the Rosa Hocutt Circle of the Baptist W. M. S. at the home of Mrs. Fussell Wednesday afternoon.

The subject for study at this meeting was "The Jews." This interesting program was in charge of Mrs. J. E. Pope, and several others took part.

After the program was over the hostesses served very attractive refreshments, carrying out the Valentine idea.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARTY

Mrs. D. B. Herring and Miss Annie Louise Herring entertained at a lovely party Monday evening honoring the local school faculty.

The living room and library were attractively decorated with Spring flowers, and here five tables were arranged for playing hearts. The Washington Motif was used with tally cards. High score was won by Mrs. Ben Graham Fussell and low score was made by Mrs. Elizabeth B. Vick. At the close of the party, the hostesses served a salad course with coffee, followed by mints.
