ROSE HILL JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior Class of the Rose Hill High School gave a banquet in honor of the Seniors, on Friday evening, March 19th.

The banquet hall was beautifully decorated in the Senior class colors, green and yellow. Long leaf pines formed the background, while green and yellow crepe paper was artistically arranged overhead. The St. Patrick idea was carried out in the table decorations and programs. Among paper shamrocks scattered on the white table clothes, were bowls of yellow daffodils. The waitresses in white wore shamrocked aprons.

While a delicious dinner was being served, a very interesting program was rendered. President of the Junior class, Bertice Scott, presided as toastmaster. At the close of the banquet, Stella Carr and C. T. Fussell, Jr., were crowned queen and king of the banquet.
