

Cottage Cheese Ring With Jam--Ummmm!

WHETHER you call it Schmier-Kase, Dutch Cheese, Clabber Cheese or just plain Cottage Cheese, you will probably be serving this delectable and wholesome food to your family during the Lenten season. It is one of the most popular of the meat substitutes.

The very name selected for this product is a "homey" one. It suggests thoughts of the family circle and the simple happy meals that no great chef has ever equalled. In a measure the simplicity of Cottage Cheese has been a handicap, because so many housewives have failed to realize that it may be more than a simple dish served only in its natural state.

Most every housewife knows what a delightful combination Cottage Cheese and jam makes, yet few realize what an attractive and artistic dish can be made of it when placed in either ring or diamond shaped molds and served as a dessert with coffee and wafers.

Order a jar of Cottage Cheese from your milk man or grocer, and try this recipe and see if it isn't considered "tops" by the entire family.

Cheese Ring with Jam (Individual Mold)

- 1 pound Cottage Cheese
- 1 tablespoon plain gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- Raspberry or any other favorite fruit preserves. (Obtainable from all grocers)

Force the Cottage Cheese through a potato ricer or a sieve. Soak the gelatin in the cold water for ten minutes. Place this gelatin mixture over boiling water—a double boiler if convenient. When the gelatin mixture has melted, allow it to cool slightly, then add to the Cottage Cheese. Pack the cheese and gelatin mixture into greased molds, allow to stand in cool place until set firmly. Ring or diamond shaped molds are particularly suited for this as they allow a center opening in which the favorite fruit preserves may be placed. When ring molds are not available, serve the preserves in a side dish or a spoonful placed on top of the Cottage Cheese. Any tasteless oil may be used in greasing the molds. This will increase ease with which the molds may be removed.

James - Lewis

Fountain, March 20.—Miss Elizabeth Lewis became the bride of Lionel James Saturday afternoon, March 13, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis of Fountain. In the living room an improvised altar of fern and white stock in floor baskets was lighted with white candles arranged in groups of seven through-out the room. Mrs. E. W. Hunt played the "Venetian Love Song" before the ceremony. While the vows were being spoken, "To a Wild Irish Rose" by McDowell was played.

O. B. Jones of Burgaw, father of the groom was best man. Miss Lewis was given in marriage by her father. Her pastor, Rev. H.

M. Wilson officiated. Mrs. James was married in a traveling suit of dawn blue trimmed with squirrel, a gray hat and accessories to match. Her shoulder corsage was of sweetheart peas.

Mrs. James is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis of Fountain. Having attended N. C. O. W. two years, she received her degree at East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville in 1935 and has been teaching in Duplin County for the past two years. Mr. James is a merchant and farmer near Wallace.

$30,000 Nurses Home Planned By Baptists

Winston-Salem, March 20.—A $30,000 nurses home at the North Carolina Baptist hospital here will probably be started in the near future according to statements by hospital officials to-day.

A meeting of the board of trustees will be called within the next ten days to consider plans for the new building.

This will be the first project of the proposed expansion of the Baptist hospital plant. The new home will have 18 rooms and will provide for 36 an extension of the present home-nurses. It will be three stories high with basement and will be of brick fireproof construction.
