

Senator McKeller To Be Principal Speaker At Fifteenth Annual Dinner E. Carolina Chamber Of Commerce

United States Senator McKeller of Tennessee will be the principal speaker for the fifteenth annual dinner of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce which will be held in Kinston, April 12, 7:00 P. M., according to a statement made by secretary H. G. Bartlett for this paper to-day. George Olson and his orchestra will furnish the music for the dinner and the annual sponsors dance which will follow.

Senator McKeller is one of the strongest advocates in the Senate of the President's proposed judicial reform program and he will discuss this issue at this dinner. The officials of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce extend an invitation to all interested parties to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing Senator McKeller discuss this very important issue of today. In order to provide accommodations for those desiring to hear him, the officials suggest that reservations for tickets to the dinner be made as early as possible. These reservations may be made to the secretary at Kinston. The price per plate will be $1.00.

Misses Elizabeth Sparkman and Mildred Pate went to Wilmington last Saturday.

Mrs. F. W. McGowan visited relatives near Fayetteville on Thursday of last week.

N. B. Boney and R. C. Wells accompanied E. D. Johnson to Raleigh on Tuesday of this week on legal business.

Mrs. Sam Newton is spending several days this week with her daughter, Mrs. William Mercer in Blandensboro.

Mrs. James Whitfield and children visited relatives near Warsaw, on Sunday.

Rev. G. C. Wells of Mooresville has been visiting in the home of R. V. Wells.

EGG-HUNT

The members of the Junior P. Y. P. L. of Grove Presbyterian Church enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt on last Monday afternoon at the spring under the direction of Miss Louise Bowen, their leader. Prizes were won by Sarah Pickett, Winnie Quinn and Norwood Boney, Jr. After a number of games and contests the children were served lemonade and cakes followed by candy eggs.

CLUB MEETS

The regular March Meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Kenansville was held Monday night at 7:30 with Miss Marie Dobson in the home of Mrs. P. J. Dobson. Miss Mildred Pate, chairman of the art department, had charge of the program. She was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Sparkman and Miss Margaret Williams of the local school faculty. After the program the guests were invited to the Drug Store for refreshments where they enjoyed ice-cream and wafers carrying out the Easter Motif.

W. M. S.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the local Baptist Church was held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Claud Dobson. The President, Mrs. C. B. Sitterson, presided over the business session. Mrs. Thad Jones conducted the Devotional. Others taking part in the meeting were: Mesdames James A. Dobson, E. Tyndall, Faison McGowan, W. B. Murray, W. E. Belange, and Claud Dobson.

CLUB ANNIVERSARY

The members of the Woman's Club of Kenansville entertained the members of the Junior Woman's Club on last Tuesday night from 8-11 o'clock in the club rooms. The occasion was the 13th anniversary of the Senior Club. Bingo was played for a long time until all players had won a prize. The numbers were called by Mrs. F. W. McGowan and Mrs. J. E. Jerritt. Later a St. Patrick's contest was enjoyed. Miss Fhebe Hallan won first prize in this and Mrs. J. A. Gavin the booby. The Social committee served ice-cream cakes carrying out a color scheme of green and white. Coffee was also served. The club rooms were most attractively decorated for the affair by the use of ivy, cherry laurel and spring flowers, the delightfully decorated products making an fitting climax to the evening. Mrs. J. A. Gavin, Chairman of the 11th District, N. C. F. W. C. presented a lovely club pin to Miss Lula M. Hinson, retiring president of the local club, as a love gift from the Kenansville Woman's Club. Miss Hinson was also chosen Honorary President by the unanimous consent of the club.

CARD PARTY

Miss Lula Hinson was hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Card Club last week at which time Mrs. George Bennett of Warsaw was welcomed as a new member. In the absence of 2 regular club members, Mrs. W. D. Reynolds and Mrs. N. B. Boney played as substitute. Mrs. Bennett was presented the prize for making the first game and bidding it. Mrs. J. A. Gavin took more tricks than any one else present with the two spots and was given a prize for that. A sweet course was served at the conclusion of the games, which carried out a color scheme of green and white, as did the tallics and table appointment.

MRS. BLACKMAN ENTERTAINS

On last Friday afternoon from 2:30-5:30, Mrs. Jack Blackman was a charming hostess when she entertained at 2 tables of Bridge. After several interesting games, scores were totalled and Mrs. A. J. Dickson was given a lovely pair of crystal vases for high score. Mrs. I. C. Burch was given an Easter Rabbit filled with candy eggs for low score. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. D. Jones in serving tempting refreshments in two courses which carried out the Easter idea as did the table cards and favors.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Master Guy Gooding attained the age of six years last week and was given a birthday party by his mother, on Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Many games were enjoyed after which the little folks were invited into the dining room. The table was centered with a pretty birthday cake, holding six pink candles and decorated with animal crackers. It was soon out and served with delicious ice cream. Mrs. Gooding was assisted by Miss Anna K. Craig and Ruth Chase Honeycutt in entertaining the guests. Favors given were small bags and marbles.

ANNOUNCEMENT
