Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. HAMILTON CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

A Social event of the greatest interest in Magnolia in many years was the Silver Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hamilton Saturday night, March 20.

The decorations were beautiful and artistically arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. The color scheme was pink and white, with beautiful ferns and other potted plants and evergreens. Over the large door entering the living room, the door entrance to the dining room and the stair rails were ropes of ivy, and back in the hall way was a table over which was a beautiful arch draped with ivy, with a large silver bell hanging in the center, and small pines on each side. On the table was the beautiful out-glass punch bowl and glasses. In the gift room over the large table, and over the door between the living room and dining room were large silver letters, "Twenty Five Years," with a silver bell at each end and between each word. The rooms were lighted with beautiful pink candles in silver holders. Over the table where punch was served and the Registration table were large shaded lights. The dining table was covered with a heavy lace cover, centered with a large bowl of cut flowers.

The guest were met at the door by Mesdames P. J. Heath of Magnolia and Clarence Carlton of Kinston who pinned on each guest a tiny silver bell tied with pink and white ribbon. Mrs. Kenneth Taylor introduced them to the receiving line in the living room, composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, their daughters, Misses Vera and Mildred and little Jeanette, their sons, John Fisher and James David, Mr. and Mrs. Street Kornegay of Warsaw, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hamilton of Burgaw, Miss Victoria Kornegay of Seven Springs and Mr. Herbert Kornegay of Mt. Olive, Mr. David and Miss Amelia Hamilton of Magnolia. Little Jeanette stood beside the door-way into the dining room and gave each guest a napkin as they passed on to the table where Misses Maye Marshburn of Magnolia School faculty and Susie Hamilton of Burgaw served Ice Cream and Cake, the Cream in pink and white. Miss Geneva Leonard directed them into the Hall where Misses Magdolene Davis and Leola Denning served punch. Mrs. L. H. Fussell directed them to the gift room presided over by Mrs. L. D. Dail. Miss Melrose Taylor presided over the registration table, and nearly one hundred friends registered.

Good bys were said at the door by Mrs. T. M. Rogers and Miss Bettie Horne.

During the evening Mrs. S. B. Hunter, Mrs. T. M. Rogers and Miss Grace Hood delighted the guest with music. Miss Hood sang "O Promise Me." The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful silver gifts and the guests enjoyed the fellowship and hospitality of the occasion, and hope Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will live to celebrate their "Golden Wedding."

Miss Mary Emily King of Duke Hospital, has severed her connections there and spent the week end here, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. King, leaving Sunday for a four months course in "Public Health", at Peabody University in Memphis, Tenn. Rev. E. G. Chamblee, the new Pastor of the Baptist Church preached two fine sermons Sunday to large congregations. His plain Gospel messages, his gentle manner and friendly spirit has already won the admiration of his congregation.

Rev. W. F. Walters will fill his regular appointment in the Methodist Church Sunday A. M. and Rev. K. D. Brown in the Free Will Baptist Church Sunday A. M. and night.

Misses Melrose Taylor and Bettie Horne motored to Goldsboro Saturday afternoon.

BAPTIST GIRL'S AUXILIARY MEETS

The Girl's Auxiliary of the Baptist Church met with Miss Onida Lucas Monday night, to carry out their special program for Home missions and make offering. Miss Aline Wilson, the President, had charge of the program and those taking part were Margaret and Frances Elwell, Vivian Wilson, Audry Merritt, Dorothy and Bettie Register, Glenda Ezell, Onida Lucas and Mary Emma Parker.

They rendered a fine program and closed with a talk on "Our Financial Obligations to God", by their counselor and two girls promised to Tithe for three months.
