Weaver - Haskette

The wedding of Miss Edna Haskette, of Faison, to Lawrence Charles Weaver of Millersburg Penna. was solemnized in a simple and impressive ceremony Sunday morning, April 25th, at the Methodist Church in Faison. Rev. A. L. Thompson, pastor, performed the ceremony. The nuptial music was rendered by Miss Charisse Brooks of Woodsdale, N. C. Just before the ceremony, Mr. Jesse Haskette, of Detroit Mich., brother of the bride, sang "Oh Promise Me." The bride, dressed in a simple White Chiffon, with white accessories, and wearing a corsage of orchids and valley lilies, entered the church with the groom unattended.

Miss Haskette is a niece of Mrs. W. D. Clifton, with whom she has made her home since early childhood. She is a graduate of the Faison High School and Eastern Teachers College. For several years she has taught in Sampson and Duplin Schools.

Mr. Weaver is a professional sportsman and proprietor of the Weaver Kennels. He is not a stranger in this vicinity and has spent the winter near Kenansville for several years, where he has made a number of staunch friends.

Immediately after the marriage the couple left for Millersburg, Penna. where they will make their home.

On Saturday evening at six o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Clifton served a buffet dinner to a number of friends and relatives.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Syble Day, sister of the groom, of Millersburg Penna., Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Haskette, and Mrs. Hopkins of Detroit Michigan, Mr. Willis Haskette, brother of the bride of High Point, N. C., Mrs. Jesse Haskette and daughter of Wilmington, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murray of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Grady, and Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Chestnut of Pink Hill, Miss Anna Katherine Craig of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter of Kinston, Mr. Austin and Kenneth Spruill of Mt. Olive, Miss Jewel Clifton of Greensboro College, Mrs. Thad Jones, Miss Virginia Dixon, Mrs. G. V. Gooding Mrs. A. J. Blanton, and Mrs. J. M. Brock all of Kenansville.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Cardui does not have a laxative effect on the bowels, and the medicine has been found to be most effective in cases of indigestion, constipation, and general weakness.

30 Months To Pay

"Too many housewives who might be using this labor-saving and comfort bringing appliance, don't realize, as I would like for them to realize, three facts:

1. That it is just as easy to buy an electric range as it is to buy an ordinary cook stove.
2. That, according to the testimony of electric range users, it is just as cheap to cook on an electric range as it is on an ordinary cook stove.
3. That a modern range will outlast by many, many years the ordinary type of cook stove.

Housewives, particularly those who do their own work and those who have a real pride in the cleanliness, modernness and efficiency of their kitchen, can't afford not to investigate electric cooking.
