It is now evident that our people are becoming tax conscious. This usually happens when citizens generally begin to ask whether they are receiving full return for their tax dollars. It is also an indication of a widespread feeling that huge governmental expenditures, national, state and local, cannot, in the final analysis, make a permanent contribution to national stability.

As a result, a certain amount of uncertainty exists, particularly in business and industrial circles, that will not be fully relegislative branches of the govern ment are hard pressed to suggest

Several things stand out. First, that in the scramble for revenue, all agencies of government have adopted the course of the least resistance and levied taxes that would bring a minimum of protests; Second, that while rates of taxation have been steadily increased, there has not been a corresponding increase in tax re-

WHEN a man whistles at his morning shave, you can usually be sure of three things—he's had a good night's sleep, his razor has a fine edge, and there's plenty of good, hot water flowing from the faucet in a steady stream. Experience has taught that nothing destroys sunny masculine dispositions in the morning like failure of the hot water supply, and more and more modern homes are turning to electricity to insure dependable hot water at the turn of the faucet, day and night. The modern electric water heater, such as the new Hotpoint, may be installed in the basement, kitchen or bathroom. It is entirely automatic in operation and requires no attention after installation.

erence to the need of reducing of Federal expenditures as a sound approach to the tax problem. In fact, the President has placed the current situation squarely before the Congress and warned that expenditures beyond budget estimates must be accompanied by new revenue. It is to be earnestly hoped that new taxes can be posponed until 1938 and tax revision carried through on a sound and equitable basis. This hope is shared by leaders in Congress.

Young Presbyt'ns Hold A Meeting

About 250 Presbyterian young people gathered at Whitville first church Saturday April 24 for the annual spring rally. The adress of the morning was delivered by Rev. S. H. Fulton of Lumberton who spoke on the challange of an active life warning against the belief that the world owes you a likelyhood.

Two musical concerts were given by the Flora Macdonald Glee Club, one in the modning and one in the evening session.

Lunch was served by the ladies of the first Church in Whitville at the community building.

At the evening session, Miss Alice Inman of the Church of the Covenant in Wilmington, and Rev R. M. Engle of Lake Waccamaw were the principal speakers.

The Davidson conference to be held June 15the. to 22nd. was discussed, as was the Penos Conference to be held June 28 to July 2nd.

The Young people voted to meet next year in the Gray's Memorial Church in Clinton. Amelia Farrier of Duplin County was elected vice president of the organization.
