IN DUPLIN
DUPLIN-Warsaw

Charles Charles Ruggles acts as Jupiter's aid in "Turn Off The Moon" the new Paramount musical which comes to the Duplin Theatre Monday before he can set his own romance straight. As a star-bedecked belle in an astrological destiny it is his duty to see that Eleanor Whitney and Johnny Downs achieve a happy conclusion for their amorous adventures in the picture that marks Fanchon's debut as a producer.

Bringing the adventures of a roving news broadcaster's life to the screen for the first time, "Behind the Headlines" features Leo Tracy in an exciting action-romance. The picture will be the offering at the Duplin Theatre in Warsaw next Tuesday, July 13th. Diana Gibson has the feminine lead opposite the fast-talking Tracy, and Philip Huston, Donald Cook and other favorites are in the supporting cast. As a radio reporter Tracy scoops his newspaper rivals by sending news flashes from the scene of action over a tiny short-wave apparatus to the main broadcasting station. This is said to be one of the best performances of the actor's career.

"Draggerman Courage," a romance of the gold fields will be shown on the screen of the Duplin Theatre beginning next Wednesday. Anthony Coldeway who wrote this thrilling story evidences his understanding of the way in which erring humanity can rise to the stature of gods when confronted with the misery of his fellowman. "Draggerman Courage" is a melodrama of the mines—telling how the men entrapped in the bowels of the earth are brought back to the sunlight by the self-effacing bravery of their fellows.

All the thrills of a trip to Hollywood are provided for local film fans in the picture "A Star is Born," which will be the offering of the Duplin Theatre next Thursday and Friday. The picture is in technicolor, and stars Janet Gaynor and Fredric March.

For this first really modern story to come to the screen in color is so vividly told, so convincingly played and so brilliantly directed by William A. Wellman that you leave the theatre feeling as if you'd actually paid a visit to filmland.

Janet Gaynor and Fredric March have written-to-order roles and have never turned in performances to match these.
