TOWNHALL INSCRIPTIONS:

A number of tombstone inscriptions in Duplin County are of more than passing interest. Some of them are as follows:

"GIBSON SLOAN, Esquire, died at his residence in Duplin County, N. C., August 10, 1834, on the plantation where he was born July 19, 1778. He was for many years a successful planter, an enlightened and influential member of the bench in the Courts of Justice, the father of a numerous family, a devout Christian and an acceptable member of the Baptist Church and being clothed with all requisites pointed out by Saint Paul for the office of Deacon he was chosen to fill that office in Concord Church. Return unto thy rest, oh my Soul, for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee." This inscription is in the neighborhood of Concord Baptist Church a few miles from Magnolia.

"Major GEORGE E. HOUSTON, died Feb. 20, 1862, aged 78 years 3 months. Behold my friend as you pass by As you are now so once was I As I am now so you must be Prepare for death and follow me." This inscription is in an old cemetery near the road from Kenansville to Sarrata.

"(Masonic emblem) In memory of WILLIAM B. MIDDLETON, born Sept. 11, 1894, died Aug. 10, 1891.

Green be the turf above him Friend of our better days." This inscription is in an old cemetery on the south side of the Grove about two miles from the Courthouse.

"FRANKLIN, son of S. H. and Elizabeth Phillips, born June 1, 1873, murdered by R. E. Lee, November 12, 1899. We cherish thy memory." This inscription is in an old cemetery between Prospect and Deep Run.

"Gen. JOHN WAYNE, died June 28, 1845, aged 55 years." This inscription is in an old cemetery near Mottenville, Sampson County, and recalls General Wayne's marriage announcement as it appeared in the Raleigh Star for May 1, 1828, and reproduced in the Wallace Enterprise for November 7, 1935, as follows: "At the seat of Brigadier-General Jno. Wayne's (Duplin County) on the 15th ultimo the General to Miss Mary Merritt of Sampson County after a courtship of 29 minutes and 7 seconds." And we are told that we live in a fast age.
