"Puppy Love" Uncovers Old Art

Forgotten pletures, gathering dust for years in an old attic, brought the hope of new life to lifes. Alida Clark, seventy-nine years old, of Maywood, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. She swapped one of the pictures with Arthur Lloyd, Jr., of Oak Park, an antique dealer, for a cocker panisi, shown in the picture here. When the dealer cleaned it up he was fold by an art authority that it was the work of an old French masser, Jean Baptiste Greuse.
