Beginning on Monday with a heavy sale that weighed out 763,804 pounds and averaged $37.04 per hundred, sales continued heavily through Friday afternoon. Monday's sale was the heaviest ever experienced by the Lumberton warehousemen, with more dollars being paid out than have ever been paid out in any other one day. However, this mark did not last long; for on Thursday, 827,742 pounds were sold, establishing a new market record. This day's sale averaged $38.10 per

During the past week prices on all types of tobacco advanced to new high levels. As the market closed on Friday, it was firm and stabilized. Re-opening on Monday of this week, there was another sharp break of tobacco, and the last reports from the warehouse floors state that last week's high prices are prevalent.

Every type of tobacco is selling high in Lumberton. Probably the

All Lumberton warehousemen are of the opinion that all tobaccos will be at their seasonal peak next week, and that growers will profit by selling every pound they have ready for the market.

Joan and Baxter realize their love for each other and, just as Mowbray is about to achieve his wicked purpose and send Baxter to the wall, Baxter hits on a million dollar idea—the stages a huge fashion show called "Vogues of 1938" with singers, dancers, entertainers, etc., using the sets salvaged from the show he backed. It's a tremendous bit—and the day is saved for love.

We are glad to report that E. G. Maxwell is improving nicely at Carolina General Hospital, where he recently underwent an operation. We all missed his presence at the Grady-Outlaw reunion Friday. It really did not seem natural for him to be absent. He always has a way of making everybody smile, and feel at home. We all hope for him a very speedy recovery.

Rev. Gustav Ulrich and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Major Sutton and Mrs. Lottie Outlaw Berger returned Monday from Asheville where they spent the weekend. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Miss Annie Maxwell returned home Friday from El Paso, Texas, where she has been visiting her cousin, Carl Babe and family. While out west, she made a trip to Arizona, and visited the Grand Canyon, and many places of interest. It is very interesting and amusing to see the many pictures and souvenirs she collected on her trip. As she is an artist by nature, we expect to see her using her brush, and painting some of the lovely scenes she was fortunate to see. On her return she visited, her father, E. G. Maxwell in the hospital and her sister, Myra.

Quite a few of our friends went from the Grady-Outlaw reunion Friday to Seven Springs that night and enjoyed the dance. The Thigpens of Pink Hill and others furnished the music for the occasion. Henry Grady, of New York City interested the crowd for a while, dancing and calling new figures which were very new to our folks. "Henry" is a good old sport, and his old friends were glad to see him, and give him a welcome back to his "old stomping ground," him and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Maxwell, of Augusta, Ga., were present, and enjoyed dancing to Henry's new "calling" such as "The Big Apple," which is very popular in some states. Come again, Henry!

Magnus Outlaw continues very sick at his home.

Dr. G. V. Gooding, of Kenansville, and W. B. Gooding visited friends in Outlaws township last Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Maxwell and children and Mrs. Mabel Holt attended the funeral of Mrs. Victoria Gooding last Wednesday at the home of her son, W. R. Gooding, and afterwards visited Joe C. Maxwell, who has been very ill.

Mrs. Ada Babe Hellig, of Salisbury and little granddaughter is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. G. Maxwell and uncle, William C. Korngay.

Miss Myra Joe Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Maxwell, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roland Grady of Wilson this weekend, and also her grandfather, E. G. Maxwell at the hospital.

School opened at E. F. Grady and Outlaw school house Monday, August 30, with a good attendance. We hope that this may prove the most successful year we have yet had, and we feel that we were very fortunate in securing Carl H. Walker, again as principal. Good luck to all.

We were pleased to welcome so many kinsmen, friends and visitors from different states to our Grady-Outlaw Reunion this year. Dr. J. Henry Highsmith, delivered a wonderful address on education, and we heard from many others. Glad to have our historian, Benjamin Grady, of Washington, D. C., and all "Our Own" too numerous to mention. Judge Henry A. Grady, who is president of our clan, presented some beautiful flags to our Historical Society, which we should all appreciate very much. They will be preserved, and used each year at our Reunion. They are beautiful. We should all give him a rising vote.

WANOCA—WALLACE—

There's something new in screen musicals under the cinema sun at last!

It's "Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938," the Technicolor musical which will come to the new Wanoca Theatre next Thursday and Friday.

Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett head the dazzling cast of screen, stage and nightclub stars in this gay, romantic tale of Manhattan, which offers us a glimpse of next year's fashions in fun, girls' gowns, music, dances and love from the pens of Samuel and Bella Spewack, who wrote the sensational Broadway success, "Boy Meets Girl." And, incidentally, there's a thrill in store for you when you see what has been done with Technicolor.

The film, which introduces the gorgeous Walter Wanger Models, garnered in the producer's search for the "most photographed girls in the world," casts Baxter as head of the House of Curson, New York's most fashionable dressmaking establishment, while Joan Bennett is seen as a lovely debutante who jilts a millionaire (Alan Mowbray) on her wedding day to become a mannequin.
