

WINGS OVER HONOLULU

The dramatic story of what happens when a beautiful newly-wed Navy wife defies all the social taboos of her husband's service is told in Universal's "Wings Over Honolulu," at the Duplin Theatre showing Monday.

Titian-haired Wendy Barrie plays the young wife and Ray Milland in her lieutenant-husband. Other members of the cast include Kent Taylor, William Gargan, Polly Rowles, Joyce Compton and Samuel Hinds.

Hailed as the funniest picture of the year, RKO Radio's "Meet the Missus" portrays the uproarious difficulties into which Helen Broderick and Victor Moore are plunged when the former's passion for entering contests wins her recognition as one of the nation's leading housewives.

Anne Shirley heads the featured cast of this mirth-quake and Joseph Santley directed.

Showing Tuesday at Duplin Theatre.

Wendy and Ray Milland in "Wings Over Honolulu" at the Duplin Theatre.

The uproarious antics of the absurd Marx Brothers—Groucho, Harpo and Chico—together with the admirable supporting work of Maxine O'Sullivan, Allan Jones, Margaret Dumont, Esther Muir and others, and the excellent direction of Sam Wood, combine to make "A Day at the Races," latest Marx laugh extravaganza, which opens Thursday at the Duplin Theatre, one of the deliciously amusing photoplays of this year or any other year.

It would be difficult to imagine any picture being funnier than the last Marxian epic, "A Night at the Opera," but their current vehicle with its hilarious plot shifting between a sanatorium and a race track, with Groucho in the role of a horse doctor, Chico as a jockey and Harpo as a race track tout, undoubtedly tops even the former picture for side-splitting situations, rib-ticking dialogue and howling characterizations.

A fleet of 50 motor trucks are used in the wordless, though heroic roles in Universal's California Straight Ahead, starting at the Duplin Saturday night with the owl show.

These modern juggernauts figure in spectacular crashes, climbing the steep roads of the Sierras and racing against railroads in a drama of clashing wills and struggling men. The humans in the picture include John Wayne, Louise Latimer, Robert McWade, Tully Marshall and Theodore Von Eltz.
