Deut. Chapter 11

The children of Israel have been in Egypt, but are being led to the promised land. When spies went out to search out the new land, all but two bring evil reports, which discouraged the people. They report that the land is rich, but is inhabited with great giants, and that the army of Israel would be helpless before them. This report has its effect. The people are discouraged, God finds it necessary to lead the people in wilderness for forty years. The spies who had said that report might have died out and a new generation have grown up who had more confidence in themselves and in their God.

The time has now come to possess the land. Moses encourages the people and leads them to trust in God. They are now ready to

KENANSVILLE
CIRCLE NO. 1 MEETS

On Monday afternoon of this week at 8 o'clock Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grove Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. J. A. Garin. The Bible hour was in charge of Mrs. H. B. Bonney, who discussed the Book of Romans, using as her theme, "Christ, the Justifier." Many Scripture references were looked up by the various members present to show "The Faith Way of Salvation." A goodly number of members were present. The business session was presided over by the circle chairman, Mrs. Moss Farmer. The hostess served delectable refreshments at the close of the meeting. Circle No. 2 will meet this week and in the fact that they meet at night and that would conflict with the revival which is now in progress. The chairman will make plans for this meeting in the near future. Watch for further announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Fyatt, and children, Jean and K. D., Jr., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Fyatt's sister, Mrs. Sude Fyatt Miller, at her home near Kenansville. Mr. and Mrs. Fyatt reside at Goldsboro.

Other boys and girls of Kenansville who have left for school are: Amanda McLendon, Meredith; Sue Lee, Greensboro; Caroline Jerritt, Peace; Marie Williams, Peace; Albert McLendon, Wake Forest; Durwood Murray, Mars Hill.

Mrs. Alton Newton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tyndall were visitors in Kinston Sunday. Mrs. Newton remained in Kinston for her operation.

Mrs. E. J. Dobson spent last week at the Beach.

Attractive Church in Mexico
The Great Church of Santa Prisca, at Taxco, Mexico, built in 1787 is reminiscent of some of the wonderfully picturesque places in Spain, with its huge dome decorated in glazed tiles in vivid ultramarine, orange, green and white sparkling in the intense sunlight.

King Gustav Autographs a Stone

In tall, resplendent pose, King Gustav of Sweden is pictured seated on the ground as he autographed the memorial stone placed outside the Gothenburg water works during the recent celebration of its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary.

Dr. Ward Elected Head of Osteopaths

Dr. Edward A. Ward (right) of Saginaw, Mich., elected president of the American Osteopathic association representing 10,000 physicians, surgeons and specialists at the association's annual convention in Chicago recently. With him is Dr. Arthur E. Allen (left) of Minneapolis, Minn., who was chosen president-elect, to take office at the 1938 convention, which will be held about mid-year. The office of president-elect is a new one.
