

Smith Township

John Cameron Smith celebrated the birthday of his home at Smith Chapel, Sunday the 15th. The occasion was one to be long remembered as a most pleasant affair. His mother, wife, two lovely little daughters, uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews and other relatives assembled to wish him many happy returns of the day, and also to enjoy the sumptuous repast spread at noontime on a long table, in the shade of the oaks in the yard.

Delicious was the fare. There were quantities of all sorts of good things to appease the insatiable man. After a blessing, justice was done to the loaded table, then a pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed, and the many beautiful gifts being over and discussed. The guests voted that John has many more such days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Eakes and children from New Bern, were weekend guests of Mrs. Josephine Stroud and his brother, Fred Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolson Turner of Smith Township are erecting a modern brick house. They expect to be located in this new home by Christmas.

Don J. Smith, Jr., was taken to a hospital in Winston Sunday. A quick recovery and a speedy return to his home is hoped for.

Mrs. C. A. Smith is recovering from a lengthy illness.

Smith Chapel closed Sunday night's ten day meeting. The community has enjoyed the sermons, and several have connected with the two churches working together in this community.
